John Macdonald Lane

The New Reformers:

The New Reformation John A. Bain, 1906 The New Reformation James Bass Mullinger, 1875 Tract No. 1. The New Reformation and its principles. (No. 2. Progress of the New Reformation in England and France. No. 3. The political revolutions of 1860 and 1861 in Europe and America.). New Reformation Society (LONDON), 1861 Creator and created; or, The new reformation, by Humanity-welfare-longer John Macdonald Lane, 1899 The New Reformation. A Narrative of the Old Catholic Movement from 1870 to the Present Time with a Historical Introduction Theodorus (pseud.), 1875 Ignoring Poverty in the U.S. P. L. Thomas, 2012-06-01 Ignoring Poverty in the U S The Corporate Takeover of Public Education examines the divide between a commitment to public education and our cultural myths and more powerful commitment to consumerism and corporate America The book addresses poverty in the context of the following the historical and conflicting purposes in public education how schools became positivistic behavioral in our quest to produce workers for industry the accountability era how A Nation at Risk through NCLB have served corporate interest in dismantling public education and dissolving teachers unions the media and misinformation about education charter schools as political corporate compromise masking poverty demonizing schools and scapegoating teachers from misusing the SAT to VAM evaluations of teachers rethinking the purpose of schools shifting from schools as social saviors to addressing poverty so that public education can fulfill its purpose of empowering everyone in a democracy and reframing how we view people living in poverty rejecting deficit views of people living in poverty and students struggling in school under the weight of lives in poverty This work is intended to confront the growing misinformation about the interplay among poverty public schools and what schools can accomplish while political and corporate leadership push agendas aimed at replacing public education with alternatives such as charter schools The audience for the publication includes educators educational reformers politicians and any member of the wider public interested in public education Prophecy and Reason Andrew Cooper Fix, 2014-07-14 During the second half of the seventeenth century the entire intellectual framework of educated Europe underwent a radical transformation A secularized view of humanity and nature was replacing faith in the direct operation of God's will in the temporal world while a growing confidence in human reason and the Scientific Revolution turned back the epistemological skepticism spawned by the Reformation By focusing on the Dutch Collegiants a radical Protestant group that flourished in Holland from 1620 to 1690 Andrew Fix explicates the mechanisms at work in this crucial intellectual transition from traditional to modern European worldview Starting from Rijnsburg near Leiden the Collegiants spread over the course of the century to every major Dutch city At the same time their thinking evolved from a millenarian spiritualism influenced heavily by the sixteenth century Radical Reformation to a philosophical rationalism similar to the ideas of Spinoza Fix has taken on an important topic in the history of ideas the circumstances under which natural reason came to be accepted as an autonomous source of truth for the individual conscience He also has fresh and concrete things to say about the relationship between religion and science in early modern European history Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

A Nation So Conceived Michael P. Zuckert, 2026-06-16 The culmination of years of work on Abraham Lincoln's political thought Michael P Zuckert's A Nation So Conceived argues for a coherent center to Lincoln's political ideology a core idea that unifies his thought and thus illuminates his deeds as a political actor That core idea is captured in the term democratic sovereignty Zuckert provides invaluable guidance to understanding both Lincoln and the politics of the United States between 1845 and Lincoln's death in 1865 by focusing on roughly a dozen speeches that Lincoln made during his career This reader friendly chronological organization is motivated by Zuckert's emphasis on Lincoln as a practical politician who was always fully aware of the political context of the moment within which he was speaking According to Lincoln's speech at Gettysburg America was new precisely because it was born in dedication to the first premise of the theory of democratic sovereignty that all men are created equal Lincoln's thought consisted in an ever deepening meditation on the grounds and implications of that proposition both in its constructive and in its destructive potential The goodness of the American regime is derived from that ground and the chief dangers to the regime emanate from the same soil Covering all significant speeches and writings of Lincoln both in his pre presidential and presidential days A Nation So Conceived is devoted to exploring the paradoxical duality of created equal In a nearly comprehensive study of Lincoln's thought Zuckert uses lessons he learned from decades of teaching to reveal how Lincoln understood both its truth and its pathological consequences while offering an assessment of his aims and achievements as a statesman

The Barbarians Are Here Michael Youssef, 2025-04-08 For decades Americans were vaguely aware that Islamist barbarians were in the deserts of the Middle East and in the mountains of Afghanistan and Pakistan executing infidels and raiding villages with unrecognizable names But the Muslim world seemed far away remote and irrelevant to our daily lives Then came the terrorist attacks of 9/11 followed by attacks at Fort Hood the Boston Marathon San Bernardino and more Now terrorists seem to be emerging everywhere unleashing senseless death and destruction on our nation They are here and their goal is nothing less than global conquest Motivated by ancient prophecies they are flooding into Western countries determined to conquer our countries and establish a global Muslim caliphate In The Barbarians Are Here Dr Michael Youssef provides clear insight into the motives and mission of the Islamic extremists He offers practical steps we can take right now to begin a New Reformation that will restore the hope of Western civilization It's not too late We are not doomed to destruction even though the barbarians are already here But we haven't a moment to lose Let this book shape how you think pray and take the Gospel to the ends of the earth R Albert Mohler Jr President of The
