Song of the Nibelungs Frank G. Ryder, 1982 The first translation into English of this monumental epic in over forty years Written around the year 1200 by an unknown Middle High German poet probably an Austrian knight cleric The Song of the Nibelungs is composed of thirty nine adventures and is divided into two major parts Two great complexes of epic action are joined together the life and death of Sigfrid his glory fault and betrayal and the massive destruction of those who betrayed him engineered by Kriemhild Sigfrid's wife. The translator has reproduced the principal characteristics of style and language in a verse form approximating that of the original. This modern translation with its naturalness of language will appeal to the general reader and scholar alike. The Nibelungenlied, 1909. Written by an unknown author in the twelfth century, this powerful tale of murder and revenge reaches back to the earliest epochs of German antiquity, transforming centuries-old legend into a masterpiece of chivalric drama. Siegfried, a great prince of the Netherlands, wins the hand of the beautiful princess Kriemhild of Burgundy by aiding her brother Gunther in his struggle to seduce a powerful Icelandic Queen. But the two women quarrel, and Siegfried is ultimately destroyed by those he trusts the most. A Companion to the

Nibelungenlied Winder McConnell, 1998. This Companion to the Nibelungenlied draws on the expertise of scholars from Germany, Britain, and the United States to offer the reader fresh perspectives on a wide variety of topics regarding the epic: the latest theories regarding manuscript tradition, authorship, conflict, combat, and politics; the Otherworld and its inhabitants; eroticism in both the Nibelungenlied and Wagner's Ring; the twentieth-century reception both of the Nibelungenlied and of its most intriguing protagonist, Kriemhild; key concepts used by the poet; the heroic, feudal, and courtly elements in the work; and an analysis of archetypal elements from the perspective of Jungian psychology. The Nibelungenlied Edward Haymes, 1986. The Song of the Nibelungs is an epic poem written around 1200 in Middle High German. Its anonymous poet was likely from the region of Passau. The Nibelungenlied is based on an oral tradition of Germanic heroic legend that has some of its origin in historic events and individuals of the 5th and 6th centuries and that spread throughout almost all of Germanic-speaking Europe. Parallels to the German poem from Scandinavia are found especially in the heroic lays of the Poetic Edda and in the Völsunga saga. The Story of the Nibelungen Lied James Kendall Hosmer, 1882. The Nibelungen-Lied, tr. after C. Lachmann's text by J. Birch. Nibelungen, 1887.
