The Collected Works of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Volume 15 Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 2020-07-14 The Opus Maximum gathers the last major body of unpublished prose writings by Samuel Taylor Coleridge Consisting primarily of fragments dictated to Joseph Henry Green probably between 1819 and 1823 these writings represent all that exists of what Coleridge considered to be the principal Labour and the great Object of his life which he called variously the Logosophia and Magnum Opus Dedicated to the reconciliation of the moral faith with the Reason Coleridge s envisioned Magnum Opus was supposed to reduce all knowledges into harmony While such a synthesis finally eluded him and the Magnum Opus remained unfinished the surviving fragments nonetheless bear powerful witness to Coleridge s engagement with theology moral philosophy natural philosophy and logic among other disciplines Among the subjects that will particularly interest readers are Coleridge s criticisms of Epicureanism pantheism and German Naturphilosophie his attempt to ground reason in faith and his reflections on personhood especially in the relationship between mother and child on will on language and on the Logos Previously unknown to all but a handful of scholars the manuscripts presented here provide valuable insight into a crucial period of Coleridge s intellectual development as he became increasingly dissatisfied with Naturphilosophie and struggled to affirm Trinitarian Christianity on a rational basis With this volume The Collected Works of Samuel Taylor Coleridge begun forty years ago under the sponsorship of the Bollingen Foundation and the editorship of the late Kathleen Coburn is now complete

A Flash of Golden Fire Thomas Elsner, 2025-05-01 In the early twentieth century C G Jung survived an intense encounter with the unconscious He did this by giving expression to his inner world in the paintings and dialogues found in the Red Book Yet Jung felt alone in this work unable to find a precedent or cultural parallel until he discovered alchemy This ancient protoscience became the bridge Jung had been seeking between the remote past and the present Yet between the downfall of alchemy in the eighteenth century and Jung s Red Book in the twentieth it seems that there was a gap in the tradition According to Jungian analyst and author Thomas Elsner Samuel Taylor Coleridge s great visionary poem The Rime of the Ancient Mariner is another link in that golden chain In Elsner s analysis Coleridge s nineteenth century night sea journey can today be understood as a symbolic self portrait of the collective unconscious a self portrait that like the Red Book finds its historical context and continuity in the alchemical tradition Continuing the highly esteemed works arising from the Fay Lecture Series sponsored by the Jung Center Houston Elsner s A Flash of Golden Fire The Birth Death and Rebirth of the Modern Soul in Coleridge s The Rime of the Ancient Mariner promises to further extend the understanding and appreciation of Jungian principles for practitioners analysts others interested in Jungian theory and practice the psychological dimensions of Romantic poetry and the evolution of Western consciousness Literature's Children Louise Joy,2019-02-21 Literature s Children offers a new way of thinking about how literature for children functions didactically It analyzes the nature of the practical critical activity which the child reader carries out emphasizing what the child does to the text rather than what he or she receives from it Through close readings of a range of works for children which have shaped our understanding of what children s literature entails including works by Isaac Watts John Newbery Kate Greenaway E Nesbit Kenneth Grahame J R R Tolkien and Malcolm Saville it demonstrates how the critical child resists the processes of idealization in operation in and through such texts Bringing into dialogue ideas from literary theory and the philosophy of education drawing in particular on the work of the philosopher John Dewey it provides a compelling new account of the complex relations between literary aesthetics and literary didacticism

Telling the Time in British Literature, 1675-1830 Marcus Tomalin,2020-03-27 Although the broad topic of time and literature in the long eighteenth century has received focused attention from successive generations of literary critics this book adopts a radically new approach to the subject Taking inspiration from recent revisionist accounts of the horological practices of the age as well as current trends in ecocriticism historical prosody sensory history social history and new materialism it offers a pioneering investigation of themes that have never previously received sustained critical scrutiny Specifically it explores how the essayists poets playwrights and novelists of the period meditated deeply upon the physical form social functions and philosophical implications of particular time telling objects Consequently each chapter considers a different device mechanical watches pendulums sandglasses sundials flowers and bells and the literary responses of significant figures such as Alexander Pope Anne Steele William Wordsworth Samuel Taylor Coleridge Charlotte Smith and William Hazlitt are carefully examined
