Skin Deep Women Writing On Color Culture And Identity:

Skin Deep Elena Featherston,1994 Psychology of Women Florence L. Denmark,Michele A. Paludi,2017-09-21

Updated with findings from the latest research this contributed work on the psychology of women covers global initiatives theories and practical applications in various settings It also addresses best practices of feminist methodologies and teaching psychology of women courses As societal gender standards continue to shift and the capabilities strengths and needs of women become more widely acknowledged and prioritized even as myths regarding women s leadership health and work behavior persist it becomes increasingly important to understand the psychology of women This third edition of Psychology of Women provides updated and expanded coverage of this highly significant and relevant subject through diverse perspectives of internationally known scholars in their disciplines offering synopses of recent research and examinations of key theoretical issues global initiatives and practical applications in the workplace therapy and educational settings A resource ideally suited to students in women s studies and the psychology of women as well as for use as a handbook for scholars faculty members and specialists in fields relating to the psychology of women the book covers specific topics such as women in middle age women s career development and challenges in integrating work and family roles and the ongoing problem of violence against women This latest edition also includes best practices of feminist methodologies and information regarding teaching psychology of women courses and it emphasizes placing value on all women including women of color women with disabilities and lesbian bisexual and transgender women Cognitive Coaching Arthur L. Costa,Robert J. Garmston,2015-08-01 In this greatly expanded and extensively updated edition of a widely popular resource you see how teachers individual and collective capacities for continuing self improvement are strengthened over time through Cognitive Coaching You gain essential skills protocols guidance research and resources to use when implementing Cognitive Coaching principles and values in your own school setting Working toward the goals of making school better places where more students succeed and satisfaction in learning and teaching prevail Costa and Garmston let you know about their own learning and how new research and practice can support individuals and schools in reaching higher more satisfying and more holistic performance Organized into four sections the book clearly and effectively presents these concepts the meanings of cognitive coaching the basics of teaching excellence strategies and tactics for engaging in coaching and how to integrate Cognitive Coaching throughout the system From a Native Son Ward Churchill,1996 Ward Churchill has emerged over the past decade as one of the strongest and most influential voices of native resistance in North America From a Native Son collects his most important and unflinching essays which explore the themes of Engendering Psychology Florence Denmark,Vita Carulli Rabinowitz,Jeri A. Sechzer,2016-01-08 Engendering Psychology s treatment of issues is based solidly on scientific evidence and presented in a balanced manner The text combines a developmental and topical approach Denmark Rabinowitz and Sechzer explore the concept of gender as a social construction across the lines of race ethnicity class age and sexual orientation pulling from the exciting new scholarship that has emerged over the last few years Thoughtful discussion questions emphasize critical thinking skills as well as encourage students to open a dialogue with both their professors and their peers This text will help readers understand the concept of gender as a social construct in contrast to the concept of sex which denotes biological differences Upon completing this text readers will have a deeper understanding of women and the knowledge that woman is a diverse and multifaceted category

Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins, 2002-06-01 In spite of the double burden of racial and gender discrimination African American women have developed a rich intellectual tradition that is not widely known In Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins explores the words and ideas of Black feminist intellectuals as well as those African American women outside academe She provides an interpretive framework for the work of such prominent Black feminist thinkers as Angela Davis bell hooks Alice Walker and Audre Lorde The result is a superbly crafted book that provides the first synthetic overview of Black feminist thought

Breathing Between the Lines Demetria Mart'nez, 1997-01-01 Demetria Mart nez has entered the public consciousness by way of the heart In 1994 she captured a Western States Book Award with her first novel Mother Tongue which went on to win widespread national attention Now in Breathing between the Lines the writer returns to poetry her first love Many of the poems in this book touch on the themes from Mother Tongue about an American activist who falls in love with a Salvadoran political refugee Weaving together threads of love and family social conviction and activism loss and renewal Breathing between the Lines carries the reader deep inside the head and heart of a talented Chicana writer Page by page the journey is an exhilarating one What we find at the end is up to us

Women of Color Pray Christal M. Jackson, 2005 A celebration of the voices of women of color in prayer Women of color pray and have prayed out of necessity for survival out of love for the Divine and because we believe in the power of prayer Prayer has been the prevailing force behind the education of our children protection and courage for our men hope for our daughters and the balm that heals sorrows from the Introduction Prayers by women around the world from China and Japan to Syria and Ghana to African American Asian American Native American and Hispanic women in the United States including Teresa Palomo Acosta Yolanda Adams Rabi a Al Adawiyya Paula Gunn Allen Savitri Bess Mary McLeod Bethune Irene I Blea Sandra Cisneros Marian Wright Edelman Rachelle Ferrell Monique Greenwood Joy Harjo Linda Hogan Patricia Locke Janice Mirikitani Toni Morrison Naomi Quinonez Della Reese Cathy Song Susan L Taylor Sojourner Truth Harriet Tubman Iyanla Vanzant Phillis Wheatley CeCe Winans Empress Yamatohime and many others This beautiful collection of prayers will take you on a journey into the spiritual walk of women of color around the world including Asia the Middle East and Africa as well as Native American African American Asian American and Hispanic women in the United States Through these prayers poetry lyrics meditations and affirmations you will share in the strong and undeniable connection that women of color share with God As you delve into the words of unwavering faith perseverance resistance celebration and communion with God and family that fill each page you will find your ideas about prayer challenged and your own prayer life inspired and renewed The System in Black and White Michael W. Markowitz, Delores D. Jones-Brown, 2000-04-30 In a collection of compelling contributions to the study of the nexus between race crime and justice noted scholars in the field critique many long held assumptions and myths about race challenging criminal justice policymakers to develop new and effective strategies for dealing with the social problems such misunderstandings create In sections devoted to criminological theory law enforcement courts and the law juvenile delinquency and gender contributors endeavor to dispel myths about African American involvement in the criminal justice system In so doing a number of important facts are established about the race crime nexus For example in an analysis of criminological theory it is concluded that race as a singular social factor has not been adequately represented in existing paradigms The subject of police profiling of African Americans reveals an evolution of court decisions that have marginalized rather than liberated African Americans since slavery Each contributor challenges both the reader and the criminal justice system to develop meaningful strategies for addressing the racism that still pervades our system of justice A chapter on women of color in prison makes a compelling argument that such institutions often represent safer environments than the life on the streets women leave behind This persuasive volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty in Sociology Criminal Justice policy development African American and Women s Studies
