The first immortal is the Dalai Lama the emanation of a bodhisattva an enlightened being who voluntarily takes rebirth in the world to benefit sentient beings The second immortal is a wrathful god named Pehar who has possessed the Nechung Oracle since the sixteenth century This book is the first to examine the relationship between these two monolithic figures that began in the seventeenth century during the reign of the Fifth Dalai Lama 1617-1682 This study is also the first extensive examination of the famed Nechung Oracle and his institution In the seventeenth century the protector deity Pehar and his oracle at Nechung Monastery were state sanctioned by the nascent Tibetan government becoming the head of an expansive pantheon of worldly deities assigned to protect the newly unified country While the Fifth Dalai Lama and his government endorsed Pehar as part of his larger unification project the governments of later Dalai Lamas continued to expand the deity's influence and by extension their own by ritually establishing Pehar at monasteries and temples around Lhasa and across Tibet Pehar's cult at Nechung Monastery came to embody the Dalai Lama's administrative control in a mutually beneficial relationship of protection and prestige the effects of which continue to reverberate within Tibet and among the Tibetan exile community today

Tibetan Demonology Christopher Bell, 2020-07-16 Tibetan Demonology discusses the rich taxonomy of gods and demons encountered in Tibet These spirits are often the cause of and exhorters for diverse violent and wrathful activities This Element consists of four thematic sections The first section Spirits and the Body explores oracular possession and spirit induced illnesses The second section Spirits and Time discusses the role of gods in Tibetan astrology and ritual calendars The third section Spirits and Space examines the relationship between divinities and the Tibetan landscape The final section Spirits and Doctrine explores how certain deities act as fierce protectors of religious and political institutions
