Some Poems And Some Talk About Poetry:

Some More Poems by Joe Joe Perrone, 2025-03-12 I wrote my first poem in two thousand two When I turned sixty what else could I do To relieve the pain of a Trade Center view Which while at work made me then my life rue It started one night on the train going home When I took paper and wrote my first poem Trying to block memories that made me moan Of buildings that fell crushing flesh and bone While the train rumbled from station to station The poems poured forth as if taking dictation But the poems I wrote were not tragic or sad Maybe because I needed to be glad They were mostly about my mom and my dad Stories so funny I felt like a cad Telling how mom would relieve her frustration On dad like in a sitcom situation With time other poems came forth with galore On subjects that blossomed into so much more That they filled a first book

Some Poems By Joe With More In This Tome That I Hope You ll Love so Joe Perrone We Need to Talk Michael Theune, Bob Broad, 2017-10-24 We evaluate poems constantly as workshop leaders competition judges and journal editors But how do we judge the success of verse in these contexts The authors propose an innovative method by which anyone involved in the assessment of poetry can be more transparent about how they value verse This book foregrounds the ethical and professional obligations of poets teachers and critics to conduct axiological inquiry so they can discover and publish what they value We Need to Talk suggests why and how people who care about poetry should communally explore and document their shared and conflicting values This is the first book to provide the background and theory as well as a practical working model for the communal empirical evaluation of creative writing

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers,1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov's social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience The Michigan Alumnus ,1996 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual
