Different Speeds, Same Furies Perry Anderson, 2022-11-08 There are few writers about whom opinions diverge so widely as Anthony Powell whose Dance to the Music of Time sequence is one of the most ambitious literary constructions in the English language In Different Speeds Same Furies Perry Anderson measures Powell's achievement against Marcel Proust's celebrated In Search of Lost Time The literature on Dance is a drop in the ocean compared to that on Proust Yet in construction of plot and depiction of character Anderson ranks Powell above him How much do particular advantages of this kind matter and why is Powell an odd man out in English letters At once so similar and dissimilar the intricate retrospectives of the two novelists on bohemia and Society upbringing and mortality relationships and personality invite interrelated judgements The closing chapters of Different Speeds Same Furies reach beyond their handlings of time to chart the historical novel from Waverley to Underworld and the breakthrough in epistolary fiction of Montesquieu's Persian Letters held together by what its author described as a secret chain which remains as it were invisible Religions and the European

Teaching British Women Writers, 1750-1900 Jeanne Moskal, Shannon R. Wooden, 2005 The exuberant recovery from obscurity of scores of British women writers has prompted professors and publishers to revisit publication of women's writings New curricular inclusion of these sometimes quirky often passionate writers profoundly disrupts traditional pedagogical assumptions about what constitutes literature This book addresses this radically changed educational landscape offering practical proven teaching strategies for newly recovered writers both in special topics courses and in traditional teaching environments Moreover it addresses the institutional issues confronting feminist scholars who teach women writers in a variety of settings and the kinds of career altering effects the decision to teach this material can have on junior and senior scholars alike Collectively these essays argue that teaching noncanonical women writers invigorates the curriculum as a whole not only by introducing the voices of women writers but by incorporating new genres by asking new questions about readers assumptions and aesthetic values and by altering the power relations between teacher and student for the better
