Baptist Missionary Magazine, 1850 Edmund M. Burke Dan A. Bavly, 1999-02-28 Dan Bavly takes a fresh look at how business is supervised and how that system can be improved He begins by assessing the performance of the government regulator and suggests reasons for the failure to prevent many of the debacles of the recent past New fiascoes often engender a spate of legislation but the regulator remains the one who gets away he is simply not accountable and does not shoulder the blame Clearly a new definition of regulator responsibility is required Drawing on his years of company board and auditing experience Bavly analyzes why the average director cannot do his job and he shows how a complete but feasible overhaul of the way company boards function can help solve this problem Bavly then goes on to explore as an insider the profession of accounting and to show why the CPA should be considered an endangered species Along the way Bavly examines many of the difficult issues of contemporary accounting Where is the trend of mammoth accounting organizations leading Is the addiction to mergers suicidal How is the accounting profession coping with technology What is the relationship between the outside CPA and the corporate internal audit division For each specific flaw in the system Bavly provides a practical remedy The general message is the need for constant reassessment and perhaps a plea to cut all the agencies of corporate governance back to human proportions

Circle of Goods Tressa Berman, 2012-02-01 Circle of Goods compiles the stories of Native American women and examines their kinship wage work and informal economies Responding to the upheavals of reservation life brought about by federal policies from commodity rations to welfare reform Mandan Hidatsa and Arikara women each with distinct histories and cultural practices stand at the center of the Fort Berthold reservation economy Berman introduces the concept of ceremonial relations of production to explain the contradictory effects of economic incentives and cultural commitments and argues that the historical movement of people and goods through a series of structured dependencies often gives rise to creative strategies for survival and new social identities

An Environmental History of Medieval Europe

Richard Hoffmann, 2014-04-10 How did medieval Europeans use and change their environments think about the natural world and try to handle the natural forces affecting their lives This groundbreaking environmental history examines medieval relationships with the natural world from the perspective of social ecology viewing human society as a hybrid of the cultural and the natural Richard Hoffmann's interdisciplinary approach sheds important light on such central topics in medieval history as the decline of Rome religious doctrine urbanization and technology as well as key environmental themes among them energy use sustainability disease and climate change Revealing the role of natural forces in events previously seen as purely human the book explores issues including the treatment of animals the tragedy of the commons agricultural clearances and agrarian economies By introducing medieval history in the context of social ecology it brings the natural world into historiography as an agent and object of history itself

Medieval Scholarship

Helen Damico, Joseph B. Zavadil, 2014-06-23 Surveying the development of medieval scholarship through biography this volume contains 23 original essays on scholars whose work shaped medieval historiography for the past 300 years Their subject was Europe between 500 and 1500 and they labored to define that protean and multinational culture Each of them pioneered or revolutionized traditional views on fields such as diplomatics Mabillon economic social and constitutional history Power Pirenne Bloch Stubbs Waitz Whitelock Maitland manuscript and archival studies Delisle Muratori Jewish history and the history of Islam and Byzantium von Grunebaum Ostrogorsky symbology and intellectual history Kantorowicz Schramm Smalley general and cultural history Gibbon Adams Haskins Sanchez Albornoz and ecclesiastical history Bolland Lea and the history of magic and science Thorndike Some of the scholars pioneered comparative and interdisciplinary studies all published work that is still essential to our understanding of the past and more important the present

Brittany in the Early Middle Ages

Wendy Davies, 2023-05-31 This volume focuses on Wendy Davies's work on early medieval Breton texts and their implications Beginning with core analyses of the Redon and Land venec cartularies it continues with papers that tease out some of the key social implications of the 9th century Redon material on the nature of political power on rural communities on the settlement of disputes and on transmission of property While the Redon charters have long been known as a source of fundamental importance for Breton history the author's database established in the 1980s allowed much greater understanding of the role of individuals at all social levels and particularly peasant level than had previously been possible Attention to the detail of the east Breton past also includes papers on some of the results of her fieldwork on building stone in particular Early medieval Brittany is not merely interesting in itself and it is certainly not some Celtic backwater Breton evidence can usefully be differentiated from the evidence of other Celtic areas and has a significant role in wider issues of European history As well as papers on the familiar themes of kingship rulership cult sites and cemeteries the final section highlights the distinctive quality of the Breton evidence for the protection of sacred and personal space for slavery and serfdom and for village level courts
