Some Folks Went West:

Some Folks John Habberton, 2024-08-23 Reprint of the original first published in 1877 Some Folks John Habberton, 1877 Western Apache Raiding and Warfare Grenville Goodwin, 2015-11-15 This is a remarkable series of personal narrations from Western Apaches before and just after the various agencies and sub agencies were established It also includes extensive commentary on weapons and traditions with Apache words and phrases translated and complete annotation Wilson's Historical, Traditionary, and Imaginative Tales of the Borders, and of Scotland: with an illustrative glossary, by Captain Thomas Brown. [With a portrait.] John Mackay WILSON, 1835 Lamba Folk-lore Clement Martyn Doke, 1927 The Land Mildred D. Taylor, 2001 After the Civil War Paul the son of a white father and a black mother finds himself caught between the two worlds of colored folks and white folks as he pursues his dream of owning land of his own

A Timeline History of the Transcontinental Railroad Alison Behnke, 2015-08-01 In the early nineteenth century much of the land west of the Mississippi River was not yet part of the United States Many people dreamed of settling this huge area but the journey to get there was long and dangerous By the mid 1860s a bold plan had taken shape the country had decided to build a single railroad stretching from the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean Spanning North America it would be the first railway to cross a continent the first transcontinental railroad Follow along with the difficult and dangerous work of building the transcontinental railroad Track the events and turning points of this major construction project that contributed to the westward expansion of the United States yet created hardships and conflicts along the way House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 1881 Official Reports of the Debates of the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 1913 Teachings of the Peyote Shamans James Endredy, 2015-11-17 A rare in depth look at the inner workings of Huichol shamanism Describes the five sacred sites of the Huichol and their peyote ceremonies Explains how the Huichol teachings of awareness centered on the five points of attention connect you to your true essence Reveals the deep relationship between Huichol cosmology Gnosticism and Christianity especially Jesus Christ and the Virgin Mary Taking place in the heart of the Huichol homeland in western Mexico this book offers a rare in depth look at the inner workings of Huichol shamanism which is permeated with the use of the sacred peyote cactus Outsiders are almost never allowed access to Huichol sacred sites and ceremonies however James Endredy after years of friendship with Huichol families earned the privilege nearly by accident Swayed by persistent pleading he agreed to take another gringo into the mountains to one of the Huichols ceremonial centers and they were both caught After trial and punishment Endredy was invited to stay within the sacred lands for the festivities he had illegally intruded upon and found his initiation into the Huichol shamanic tradition had begun Sharing his intimate conversations and journeys with the shaman he calls Peyote Jesus the author explains how Huichol belief revolves around the five sacred directions the five sacred sites and the five points of attention As Peyote Jesus explains the five points of attention

refer to dividing your awareness yet staying focused on your inner self This is not a normal state of consciousness for most people yet when we maintain these points of attention we discover our true essence and move closer to God Endredy undergoes dozens of spiritual journeys with peyote as he makes the pilgrimages to the five sacred Huichol sites with Peyote Jesus He is shocked by his vision of the Virgin Mary while under peyote s guidance and learns of the deep relationship strictly on Huichol terms between their cosmology Gnosticism and Christianity especially Jesus Christ Providing an inside look at the major ceremonies and peyote rituals of the Huichol this unexpectedly powerful book reveals the key tenants of the Huichol worldview their beliefs in the afterlife and their spiritual work on behalf of all of humanity The Autobiography of Lynn

Lee Woodruff Nora Brazelton,2002-09-10 The Autobiography of Lynn Lee Woodruff is a chronological collection of remembrances family history and experiences of a real Wyoming man who lived his childhood summers in a tent traveling with his family while the sheep grazed in a time when the environment was prestine enough you laid on the bank and drank from the springs and rivers Lee relates some of his observations and experiences of the sheep business World War II working road construction his inventions working at a lodge sawmill ski run and outfitting Lee also shares some of his knowledge and personal views on a few of his passionate non controversial subjects _____ During the last three years Lee has painstakingly outlined notes and recorded these life incidences which were then transcribed He then reread proofed and researched spellings of places and names This by no means is everything but are selected significant events that had an impact on him The Trail of Gold and Silver Duane A. House of Commons,1913 Blood in the Wilderness Jack Edward Shay,1998-09-11 Early August 1799 A wilderness clearing along the Mud River a few miles northeast of Russellville a small town in the vast nearly unbroken frontier of western Kentucky A pioneer family has stopped to rest Two men Three women Three babies A string of pack horses It has been an exhausting journey a dangerous one at times The men are about thirty the women some five to ten years younger Each woman has a baby her own child The children two girls and a boy range from four to six months in age The day is hot The shallow river is cool Shade trees provide a measure of relief from the sticky humidity the baking heat The men stretch out along the banks of the river The women tend to their children s needs then place them down and stretch out themselves Everyone drinks from the stream They have been traveling forever Or at least it seems that way They re tired They just want to rest before they must move out again always pushing on always in search of their destination in an unforgivingly harsh wilderness battling tremendous odds against their very survival They carry all their worldly possessions with them True pioneers they live off the land taking from it what they need to eke out another day of life in the new American world of democracy and free enterprise Suddenly one of the babies cries It is one of the girls this one only four months old One of the men rouses himself from his rest He makes his way to the crying infant The man is both a husband and a father and he is with his family A touching scene seems about to ensue A father lovingly tending his irritable child all alone in the wilderness A loving man dotting on his daughter s needs He picks the child up But this is no ordinary family And this is no ordinary man The man is Micajah Harp and he is wanted by the law Even at this moment there is a price on his head and posses are after him They might hear the wail of the infant and swoop down on the family and arrest them Micajah must do something He must silence the baby He picks the child up by her feet and swings her against the side of the tree Her head smashes against the unrelenting wood The breath of life leaves her instantly He then tosses the lifeless body into the woods He signals the rest of the family to rise to their feet They do so and the family moves deeper into the wilderness They are the Harps America s first and most brutal serial killers God help anyone who gets in their way They were the most brutal monsters of the human race to those who knew them ruthless and indiscriminate barbarians terrorizing an innocent America unconscionable brutes inflicting savagery upon anyone they encountered They sought little in life save the very survival necessary to maintain their bloodlust It mattered little where or with whom they lived They cheated and tormented at will and killed for the sake of killing Their adult lives became a continual exercise in abject unrepentant evil During a reign of horror engulfing Kentucky Tennessee and Illinois they became the scourge of the late 18th century American frontier They killed anywhere from two dozen to four dozen men women and children before justice caught up with them They were the historical prototypes of later killers Billy the Kid Bonnie and Clyde and Jeffrey Dahmer but they far exceeded them in brutality and criminal enormity They were the Harps Micajah the older and bigger Wiley the younger and smaller Big Harp and Little Harp as they were commonly called And they were America s first serial killers This is their story Blood in the Wilderness The Story of the Harps America s First Serial Killers includes a bibliography of seventy five sources It results from years of research and visits to all the sites associated with t Linguistic position of South-Western New-Guinea Boelaars,2024-09-02 The Western Story Jon Tuska,1999-11-01 The Western Story A Chronological Treasury consists of twenty Western stories spanning the years 1892 to 1994 For that generation of American writers who saw the frontier in the last century including Mark Twain Bret Harte and Owen Wister it seemed exotic strange wonderful Others such as Frederic Remington and John G Neihardt reflected the clash between various Indian nations and pioneers These authors prepared the way for the founders of the first Golden Age of the Western story Willa Cather who wrote of pioneer life in Nebraska Zane Grey who combined wilderness experiences with romance and the search for spiritual truth B M Bower who portrayed the cowboys and frontier women she knew growing up in Montana Max Brand who created dramas in which the psychological and spiritual meaning of life was more important than the physical terrain and Ernest Haycox who combined character and drama with historical accuracy Another generation of writers perpetuated this first Golden Age Peter Dawson and T T Flynn who began writing Western stories in the 1930s Walter Van Tilburg Clark who created a masterpiece in The Ox Bow Incident Dorothy M Johnson and Les Savage Jr who experimented with making the Western story still more realistic and Louis L Amour whose visibility and popularity won legions of new readers to the genre Humanity depth and verisimilitude were already part of the Western story when Will Henry Elmer Kelton and T V Olsen came on the scene to intensify these qualities in their own stories even as they experimented with new perspectives And Cynthia Haseloff s story written especially for this collection with its symbolism and its simplicity may be the harbinger of a second Golden Age
