Then fate delivered a crushing hit Hayhurst blew out his pitching shoulder in an insane off season workout program. After surgery rehab and more rehab his major league dreams seemed more distant than ever. From there things got worse weirder and funnier. Kate Donovan, 2016-08-31. Fans of football romance will love this new book in the Play Makers series by Kate Donovan. Daniel Riga the controversial head coach of the Portland Lancers has the same rule for press conferences as for anything else during football season: football only. The man doesn't even date except in the off season. So why are these reporters asking about some sociologist who inexplicably called him a zombie in her latest newspaper column. On the Lifestyles page no less. Noelle Sharpe is mortified that her words have been taken out of context since her tongue in cheek point was that zombies focus on a single obsession: eating brains. But a brilliant vibrant man like Daniel Riga should broaden his horizons past football only. Her attempt at apologizing in print only leads to another round of jokes at the handsome coach's expense so she tracks him down for an in person apology. As frustrated as he is with this zombie nonsense Daniel goes wild for Noelle and they end up in bed. Unfortunately it's football season so he asks her to wait for him until the off season. By now she's so crazy about him and so worried she'll cost the Lancers their season by distracting him she readily agrees. Zombies consume brains. That's all they do. And Daniel Riga consumes football. That's all he does. Or at least until Noelle Sharpe writes her way into his life and gives football some serious competition. Praise for Play Date. Sean and Tess's story pulled me in right from the start and had me flying through the pages in search of what I hoped to be a very steamy happily ever after and I am happy to report I found that and so much more.
