Drew,1997-10-15 The book focuses on individuals writing in the 90s but also includes 12 classic authors e g Mark Twain Louisa May Alcott J R R Tolkien who are still widely read by teens It also covers some authors known primarily for adult literature e g Stephen King and some who write mainly for middle readers but are also popular among young adults e g Betsy Byars An affordable alternative to multivolume publications this book makes a great collection development tool and resource for author studies It will also help readers find other books by and about their favorite writers     Something about the Author Adele Sarkissian,1985-12 A collection of autobiographical essays written by prominent authors and illustrators of books for children and young adults     A Shot Rang Out Jon L. Breen,2008-09-08 A collection of mystery criticism and essays from the reviewer of books for Ellery Queen Magazine Jon Breen is the worthy successor of Anthony Boucher and his hundreds of reviews of books and authors is a must have for all serious mystery fans A Ramble House book     Encyclopedia of Pulp Fiction Writers Lee Server,2014-05-14 Provides an introduction to American pulp fiction during the twentieth century with brief author biographies and lists of their works     Victims, by Theo Gift Dorothy Henrietta Boulger,1887     The Complete Guide to Shadow People Robert J Dornan,2025-04-04 The Complete Guide to Shadow People is the ultimate exploration into one of the most chilling and enigmatic paranormal phenomena of our time Shadow beings have been whispered about for centuries dark figures lurking in the corners of vision faceless entities watching from the foot of the bed and eerie presences that vanish the moment they are fully seen But what are they Where do they come from And most disturbingly what do they want This gripping book takes readers on a journey through the history folklore and modern day encounters with shadow entities From the infamous Hat Man to glowing eyed figures that speak in whispers from black eyed children knocking at the door to government conspiracies linking shadow beings to interdimensional visitors every chilling account is backed by research eyewitness testimonies and deep investigations into the unknown Are shadow people merely tricks of the mind or do they feed on fear Can technology detect them And what should someone do if they find themselves face to face with one of these beings The Complete Guide to Shadow People provides answers chilling case studies and methods of protection for those who dare to look into the darkness For believers and skeptics alike this book will challenge perceptions of reality and leave readers questioning what might be watching them from just beyond the veil     Who Done It? Ordean A. Hagen,1969     Victims Travis Jeppesen,2003-05-01 These are the final days of The Overcomers a small group of lost souls guided by the teachings of charismatic leader Martin Jones As they prepare for the cosmic event that will signal the end of their time on earth their struggles to reconcile their faith in Jones s teachings with the emotional ups and downs of their everyday lives form the subject of this exquisitely written and highly original novel In the tradition of Magic Mountain and The Plague this novel of ideas ponders the conepts of friendship love and manipulation with skill and humour     Domestic Violence as State

Crime Evelyn Rose, 2021-12-30 Domestic Violence as State Crime presents a provocative challenge to the way that domestic violence is understood and addressed Underpinned by a radical feminist perspective the central argument of this book is that domestic violence against women constitutes a patriarchal state crime By analysing the international collective structural and institutional dimensions of this harm the author outlines a spectrum of state complicity ranging from passive bystander to active producer participant and perpetrator The wide ranging analysis in this book draws on data from comparable liberal democratic contexts including Australia the United States and the United Kingdom in order to comprehensively show how domestic violence state criminality functions in practice even in the present and in supposedly progressive contexts This analysis provides valuable insight into why this epidemic scale crime is ever resistant to a diversity of contemporary interventions Drawing its concepts into a cohesive whole the book then posits an overarching feminist typological theory of domestic violence as state crime It also considers how domestic violence might be addressed if we confront its state crime dimensions and adopt a more holistic and transformative approach to remedy redress prevention and justice An accessible and compelling read Domestic Violence as State Crime offers an innovative scholarly and activist contribution to the study of violence against women feminism criminology and the broader critical study of law politics and society It will appeal to anyone who is interested in thinking differently about domestic violence and the state

The Routledge Handbook on Crime and International Migration Sharon Pickering, Julie Ham, 2017-07-14 The Routledge Handbook on Crime and International Migration is concerned with the various relationships between migration crime and victimization that have informed a wide criminological scholarship often driven by some of the original lines of inquiry of the Chicago School Historically migration and crime came to be the device by which Criminology and cognate fields sought to tackle issues of race and ethnicity often in highly problematic ways However in the contemporary period this body of scholarship is inspiring scholars to produce significant evidence that speaks to some of the biggest public policy questions and debunks many dominant mythologies around the criminality of migrants The Routledge Handbook on Crime and International Migration is also concerned with the theoretical empirical and policy knots found in the relationship between regular and irregular migration offending and victimization the processes and impact of criminalization and the changing role of criminal justice systems in the regulation and enforcement of international mobility and borders The Handbook is focused on the migratory fault lines between the Global North and Global South which have produced new or accelerated sites of state control constructed irregular migration as a crime and security problem and mobilized ideological and coercive powers usually reserved for criminal or military threats Offering a strong international focus and comprehensive coverage of a wide range of border criminal justice and migration related issues this book is an important contribution to criminology and migration studies and will be essential reading for academics students and practitioners interested in this field

Shadow of My Shadow Jennifer Doyle, 2024-07-15 Over the course of two years Jennifer Doyle filed multiple harassment complaints with her campus's Title IX office and one with the Department of Labor Her experiences with these complaints and how they subsequently impacted her life have led to this book Shadow of My Shadow Doyle tells her personal story sharing how she lost her sense of voice felt exposed at work became distrustful of students and colleagues and was consumed by grief Working across autobiography literary criticism an analysis of the Larry Nassar Title IX case and a larger institutional critique of harassment administration Doyle shows that harassment is at once intimate dynamic and intensely social flourishing in neglected social spaces In her own case it profoundly reshaped her relationship to her work her writing and ultimately to herself As Doyle explains the experience drew out the distance between herself in the world and herself on the page This book is her effort to understand and repair that breach and to consider how loss and grief can be sources of insight and compassion

The Link between Specific Forms of Online and Offline Victimization Shelly L.

Clevenger, Catherine D. Marcum, 2023-09-06 This book features the empirical work of internationally known scholars providing an in depth examination of the overlap between online and offline victimization and offending The vast expanse of the Internet has provided a limitless playground for offenders to prey on those unaware of their predators or well as those who are intimately familiar with their offenders However the Internet does not isolate offenders into mutually exclusive categories Instead it has allowed many offenders to use both offline and online platforms to commit crime It also opened up more opportunity for violation of victims This volume features two divisions of the American Society of Criminology the Division of Victimology and Division of Cybercrime who have joined forces to sponsor a special issue on the overlap between forms of online and offline victimization and offending International scholars in this book provide a notable spectrum of different forms of this phenomenon as well as predictors of these behaviors The Link between Specific Forms of Online and Offline Victimization will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Victimology Cybercrime Criminology and Criminal Justice The chapters included in this book were originally published in Victims Offenders The Storyteller's Shadows Bill Reed,2018-03-03 In a volume containing 14 original plays including three shadow play adaptations of Gogol Morton and Runyon classics the author resurrects a sadly neglected theatre genre the shadow play combining traditional shadow techniques with normal acting to create full bodied mainstream plays AIDS in the Shadow of Biomedicine Isak Niehaus,2018-12-15 The Bushbuckridge region of South Africa has one of the highest rates of HIV infection in the world Having first arrived in the area in the early 1990s the disease spread rapidly and by 2008 life expectancies had fallen by 12 years for men and 14 years for women Since 2005 public health facilities have increasingly offered free HAART highly active antiretroviral therapy treatment offering a degree of hope but uptake and adherence to the therapy has been sporadic and uneven Drawing on his extensive ethnographic research carried out in Bushbuckridge over the course of 25 years Isak Niehaus reveals how the AIDS pandemic has been experienced at the village level Most significantly he shows how local cultural practices and values have shaped responses to the epidemic For example while local attitudes towards death and misfortune have contributed to the stigma around AIDS kinship structures have also facilitated the adoption and care of AIDS orphans Such practices challenge us to rethink the role played by culture in understanding and treating sickness with Niehaus showing how an appreciation of local beliefs and customs is essential to any effective strategy of AIDS treatment Overturning many of our assumptions on disease prevention the book is essential reading for practitioners as well as researchers in global health anthropology sociology epidemiology and scholars interested in public health and administration in sub Saharan Africa 2015 General Election Manifesto Mike Buchanan,2015-01-29 The human rights of men and boys in the United Kingdom have been increasingly assaulted by the state s actions and inactions for over 30 years as they have across much of the developed world Justice for men boys and the women who love them is the only political party in the English speaking world campaigning for the human rights of men and boys including the right of all children to enjoy good access to both parents following family breakdowns and the restoration of fatherhood and strong families The British state has become ever more hostile towards men and boys although the state is largely funded by men through income tax receipts Men collectively pay 72% and women 28% of the income taxes collected by the state In 2011 12 British men paid 68 billion 68 000 000 000 more income tax than women yet the state disadvantages men and boys in many areas usually to advantage women and girls There are no areas in which the state disadvantages women and girls A state which is hostile towards half its citizens also affects women who are mothers of boys or who are men s partners relatives colleagues friends or acquaintances In the case of abortion foetal alcohol syndrome and fatherlessness girls including those yet unborn are also assaulted by the actions and inactions of the state The result is both inevitable and predictable an ever more dysfunctional society with increasing alienation of the sexes In this manifesto we provide details of the state s disadvantaging of men and boys in 20 areas and we make proposals in each of them The areas are presented in a broadly chronological order Abortion Foetal alcohol syndrome Genital mutilation Fatherlessness restoring strong families Education Employment Access to children after family breakdowns Domestic violence Sexual abuse Armed Forces veterans mental health issues Homelessness Suicide Criminal justice system Paternity fraud Anonymity for suspected sexual offenders Divorce Health Political representation State interference in company director appointments Expectation of retirement years The social engineering programmes which seek equality of gender outcomes are having an increasingly damaging impact on British society and the Conservative led coalition is no less keen on driving those programmes than the preceding Labour administrations We have a vision of Britain as a nation that doesn t disadvantage half its citizens A society in which men and women have equal opportunities but are able to make their own choices in life without state intervention to advantage one sex over the other It s said that under the first past the post system votes for parties other than the major parties are wasted but voting is the only mechanism democracy affords citizens to seriously challenge politicians who embrace the all pervading anti male ideology which has dictated the state s policy directions for over 30 years The major parties are institutionally committed to advantaging women and girls at the expense of men and boys regardless of the consequences as we recognized after engaging in parliamentary inquiries which demonstrated that the government simply doesn t respond to rational arguments against anti male policy directions The only choice for citizens concerned about the state s assaults on the human rights of men and boys is to vote and to vote for J4MB In the short to medium term our challenge is to improve public understanding about the state s assaults on the human rights of men and boys We do that in various ways including the use of social media Our television and radio appearances may be found on our YouTube channel Our longer term strategy however is to develop our party to the point that we can field many candidates in general elections in marginal constituencies where the major parties are vulnerable They will then have no choice but to take heed of the voices we represent engage with us and seek to appease them by modifying their policies and their direction of travel At the 2015 general election we ll be fielding three candidates in adjacent constituencies near Nottingham where in 2010 MPs were elected with very slim majorities I ll be standing in Ashfield where Gloria De Piero retained the seat for Labour with 192 more votes than a Liberal Democrat candidate She s the Shadow Minister for Women Equalities Ian Young formerly a victim of domestic violence will be standing against a Conservative Mark Spencer in Sherwood Ian lives in the constituency in Hucknall Ray Barry leader of the campaign group Real Fathers for Justice will be standing against another Conservative Anna Soubry in Broxtowe I should like to take this opportunity to thank all the men and women who have supported J4MB since its launch in February 2013 including those who have contributed to this manifesto We ve gone to considerable lengths to ensure that all the information we present is factually correct If you should find any mistakes or you believe any of the content to be misleading please draw this to our attention If you feel able to support J4MB in any way please contact us I invite you to make a donation which will support our campaigning Nobody associated with J4MB has ever drawn any personal income from donations and we don't expect that to change in the foreseeable future if ever Thank you for your support and for seeking justice for men and boys and the women who love them

The Harms of Crime Media Denise L. Bissler, Joan L. Connors, 2014-01-10 A scan of today's television programming reveals numerous media stories factual and fictional featuring some aspect of crime These depictions can stray far from reality with the effect of creating and reinforcing distorted impressions This collection offers a sociological analysis of race class and gender stereotypes within crime media Essays discuss particular examples of inequalities and stereotypes consider the implications of such portrayals and demonstrate how they influence the public's expectations and beliefs about real world crime
