Sometimes Im Jealous:

Not Like I'm Jealous or Anything Marissa Walsh,2007-12-18 We've all been there We've all felt that pang It's hard to stop the green eyed monster once it rears its ugly head We asked 13 writers to share their visions of jealousy and this collection of short stories essays and one poem was their response Necessary Fiction Eloghosa Osunde,2025-07-22 From the acclaimed author of Vagabonds an audacious and eye opening exploration of cross generational queer life in Nigeria What makes a family How is it defined and by whom Is freedom for everyone In Necessary Fiction Eloghosa Osunde poses these provocative questions and many more while exploring the paths and dreams hopes and fears of more than two dozen characters who are staking out lives for themselves in contemporary Nigeria Across Lagos one of Africa's largest urban areas and one of the world's most dynamic cities Osunde's characters seek out love for self and their chosen partners even as they risk ruining relationships with parents spouses family and friends As the novel unfolds a rolling cast emerges vibrantly active stubbornly alive brazenly flawed These characters grapple with desire fear time death and God forming and breaking unexpected connections in the process unveiling how they know each other have loved each other and had their hearts broken in that pursuit As they work to establish themselves in the city's lively worlds of art music entertainment and creative commerce we meet their collective and individual attempts to reckon with the necessary fiction they carry for survival

Where Is My Happiness? Nikki Yang,2010-04-19 Life is like an airplane that goes really fast We are only allowed to go forward we can never turn back Time makes us old and love make us sore There's a lot of happiness in our lives but there's also much sorrow That is life That is what makes life so wonderful happiness sometimes and sadness other times Some people might think sadness is not a wonderful thing to keep and that's true But if we only had happiness without any sadness our lives wouldn't be that fun anymore I know sadness feels really bad It hurts us a lot Some people even lose their life because of tears but everybody has to have some sadness throughout life We just hope sad times go away faster and happy moments last longer Remember always smile while facing any emotional issues It'll make life a lot better Accept the truth and always trust yourself Retail Therapy Amanda Ford,2002-09-15 Amanda Ford the bestselling author of Be True to Yourself now presents Retail Therapy the ultimate guide to life through shopping Retail Therapy is a playful yet wise look at the pleasures of shopping Amanda Ford loves to shop and she exuberantly shares the stories of her most memorable finds the perfect pink sweater a set of precious porcelain dishes a dusty yet valuable antique But she also shows how shopping allows us to examine deeper truths about our lives and what is really going on when money is spent Chapters include The Best Trends to Follow Are the Ones You Set Yourself We Never Know How Things Will Turn Out Be Thankful for What You Have and Some Places We Have to Go to Alone Blending tales about her own experiences with life lessons quotes and advice her message is ultimately about discovering your passions taking care of yourself and being conscious about decisions God

Bereavement Narratives Christine Valentine, 2008-07-08 Bereavement is often treated as a psychological condition of the individual with both healthy and pathological forms However this empirically grounded study argues that this is not always the best or only way to help the bereaved In a radical departure it emphasises normality and social and cultural diversity in grieving Exploring the significance of the dying person's final moments for those who are left behind this book sheds new light on the variety of ways in which bereaved people maintain their relationship with dead loved ones and how the dead retain a significant social presence in the lives of the living It draws practical conclusions for professionals in relation to the complex and social nature of grief and the value placed on the right to grieve in one's own way supporting and encouraging the bereaved person to articulate their own experience and find their own methods of coping Based on new empirical research Bereavement Narratives is an innovative and invaluable read for all students and researchers of death dying and bereavement

Five Things I Can't Live Without Holly

Shumas, 2007-07-13 On paper Nora's life looks perfect She's moving in with her boyfriend Dan she has a stable job and a great group of friends But she's stuck in what she refers to as meta life the plight of overthinking and secondguessing to the point of self sabotage One day at work Nora decides to thwart her meta life by following her instincts In what feels like a moment of revelation she quits her job Immediately her meta life goes into overdrive What on earth was she thinking and what is she going to do now Fortunately when a friend asks Nora to rewrite her Internet dating profile she realizes that not only is she good at it but she really enjoys it Billing herself as a Cyrano de Bergerac for the lovelorn Nora finally begins to find professional success But soon Nora's meta life has latched onto the question she's asked so many clients What are the five things she can't live without Is her flourishing business one of them Is Dan With each new client and each step she takes in her own relationship she must confront her biggest demon her self sabotaging meta life But will she be able to slay it forever

Signs of Hope Donna West, 2012-01-17 Winner of the 2013 Outstanding Qualitative Book Award by the International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry Signs of Hope tells the story of a narrative inquiry with three deafhearing families For many of us deafness represents loss and silence For others being deaf is a genetic quirk an opportunity for learning spiritual adventure and reward For yet others it is the most natural thing in the world a connection to a genealogical layer of signing ancestors and the continuation of a culture Amid the noise of mainstream medical and educational discourses of deafness here are family voices demanding to be heard whether spoken or signed that challenge audiological and surgical intervention that call for scrutiny and critique of inclusive deaf related pedagogical practices that rail against marginalisation of members of minority cultures Over four years Donna West has recorded the stories of three families who wish to counter and resist what they see as damaging misconceptions and discriminatory constructions of deafness and deafhearing family life Here spaces are created that respect and acknowledge human beings adults children deaf hearing as storytellers The poetic and performative narratives at the heart of this book reveal not only the ways in which hurtful definitions of and discrimination towards deaf people and signing deafhearing families is destabilised but also the ways in which celebration of deaf culture and sign language are affirming and vital for healthy family life

Everyone Can Write Peter Elbow, 2000-01-27 With Writing without Teachers OUP 1975 and Writing with Power OUP 1995 Peter Elbow revolutionized the teaching of writing His process method and its now commonplace free writing techniques liberated generations of students and teachers from the emphasis on formal principles of grammar that had dominated composition pedagogy This new collection of essays brings together the best of Elbow's writing since the publication of Embracing Contraries in 1987 The volume includes sections on voice the experience of writing teaching and evaluation Implicit throughout is Elbow's commitment to humanizing the profession and his continued emphasis on the importance of binary thinking and nonadversarial argument The result is a compendium of a master teacher's thought on the relation between good pedagogy and good writing it is sure to be of interest to all professional teachers of writing and will be a valuable book for use in composition courses at all levels
