Indigenous Life Projects and Extractivism Cecilie Vindal

Ødegaard,Juan Javier Rivera Andía,2018-10-02 Exploring indigenous life projects in encounters with extractivism the present open access volume discusses how current turbulences actualise questions of indigeneity difference and ontological dynamics in the Andes and Amazonia While studies of extractivism in South America often focus on wider national and international politics this contribution instead provides ethnographic explorations of indigenous politics perspectives and worlds revealing loss and suffering as well as creative strategies to mediate the extralocal Seeking to avoid conceptual imperialism or the imposition of exogenous categories the chapters are grounded in the respective authors long standing field research The authors examine the reactions from resistance to accommodation consequences from anticipation to rubble and materials from fossil fuel to water diversely related to extractivism in rural and urban settings How can Amerindian strategies to preserve localised communities in extractivist contexts contribute to ways of thinking otherwise

Cultural Tourism in Latin America Jan M. Baud,Johanna Louisa Ypeij,2009 Cultural tourism has become an important source of revenue for Latin American countries especially in the Andes and Meso America Tourists go there looking for authentic cultures and artefacts and interact directly with indigenous people Cultural tourism therefore takes place in close engagement with local societies This book analyse the effects of cultural tourism and the processes of change it provokes in local societies It analyses the intricacies of informal markets the consequences of enforcing tourist policies the varied encounters of foreign tourists with local populations and the images and identities that result from the development of tourism The contributors convincingly show that the tourist experience and the reactions to tourist activities can only be understood if analysed from within local contexts Contributors Michiel Baud Annelou Ypeij Lisa Breglia Quetzil E Casta eda Ben Feinberg Carla Guerr n Montero Walter E Little Keely B Maxwell Lynn A Meisch Zoila S Mendoza Alan Middleton Beatrice Simon Griet Steel Gabriela Vargas Cetina Tourism in Latin America especially the sort of cultural tourism that plays to desires for authentic experiences has become a key foreigner currency earner for many countries This important volume examines the impact of tourism across the region providing a rich survey of the range of experiences and teasing out the theoretical implications From the almost surreal Mi Pueblito theme park in Panama to mushroom hunting tourists in Oaxaca to the eco trail leading to Machu Pichu these chapters present compelling cases that speak to identity formation nationalism and economic impacts As the contributors show benefits are differentially accrued to various actors and often not to the communities that tourists come to see Yet the contributors also make it clear that in struggles over ownership authenticity and political representation local communities actively shape the contours and meanings of tourism at times successfully leveraging cultural capital into economic gains Edward F Fischer Director Center for Latin American Studies Vanderbilt University The Andean World Linda J. Seligmann,Kathleen S. Fine-Dare,2018-11-08 This comprehensive reference offers an authoritative overview of Andean lifeways. It provides valuable historical context and demonstrates the relevance of learning about the Andes in light of contemporary events and debates. The volume covers the ecology and pre-Columbian history of the region and addresses key themes such as cosmology, aesthetics, gender, and household relations, modes of economic production, exchange, and consumption, postcolonial legacies, identities, political organization, and movements, and transnational interconnections. With over 40 essays by expert contributors that highlight the breadth and depth of Andean worlds, this is an essential resource for students and scholars alike.

Contemporary Indigenous Cosmologies and Pragmatics Françoise Dussart, Sylvie Poirier, 2022-03-07. In this timely collection, the authors examine Indigenous peoples' negotiations with different cosmologies in a globalized world. Dussart and Poirier outline a sophisticated theory of change that accounts for the complexity of Indigenous peoples' engagement with Christianity and other cosmologies, their own colonial experiences, as well as their ongoing relationships to place and kin. The contributors offer fine-grained ethnographic studies that highlight the complex and pragmatic ways in which Indigenous peoples enact their cosmologies and articulate their identity as forms of affirmation. This collection is a major contribution to the anthropology of religion, religious studies, and Indigenous studies worldwide. Contributors: Anne Marie Colpron, Robert R. Crpeau, Françoise Dussart, Ingrid Hall, Laurent J. rme, Frédéric Laugrand, C. James MacKenzie, Caroline Nepton, Hotte Ksenia Pimenova, Sylvie Poirier, Kathryn Rountree, Antonella Tassinari, Petronella Vaarzon Morel.

Of Hoarding and Housekeeping Sasha Newell, 2023-10-13. Hoarding has largely been approached from a psychological and universal perspective, and decluttering from an aesthetic and ecological one, while little work has been done to think about the cultural and global economic aspects of these phenomena. Of Hoarding and Housekeeping provides an anthropological, global, and comparative angle to the understanding of hoarding and decluttering, using cases from a variety of countries including the US, Japan, India, Cameroon, and Argentina. Focusing on the house with careful attention to material flows in and out, this book examines practices of accumulation, storage, decluttering, and waste as practices of kinship and the objects themselves as material kin.

Vicos and Beyond Tom Greaves, Ralph Bolton, Florencia Zapata, 2010-10-16. In 1952, Professor Allan Holmberg arranged for Cornell University to lease the Hacienda Vicos, an agricultural estate in the central Peruvian highlands, on which some 1800 Quechua-speaking highland peasants resided. Between 1952 and 1957, Holmberg, with colleagues and students, initiated a set of social, economic, and agrarian changes and nurtured mechanisms for community-based management of the estate by the resident peasants. By the end of a second lease in 1962, sufficient political pressure had been brought to bear on a reluctant national government to force the sale of Vicos to its people. Holmberg's twin goals for the Vicos Project were to bring about community possession of their land base and to study the process as it unfolded, advancing anthropological understanding of cultural change. To describe the process of doing both, he invented the term participant intervention. Despite the large corpus of existing Vicos publications, this book contains much information that here reaches print for the first time. The chapter authors do not entirely agree on various key points regarding the nature of the Vicos Project the intentions of project personnel and community actors and what interpretive framework is most valid in part these disagreements reflect the relevance and importance of the Vicos Project to contemporary applied anthropologists and the contrasting ways in which any historical event can be explained Some chapters contrast Vicos with other projects in the southern Andean highlands others examine new developments at Vicos itself The conclusion suggests how those changes should be understood within Andean anthropology and within anthropology more generally

Lugares parientes Guillermo Salas, 2019-02-06 A partir de investigaciones que muestran cómo la provisión de comida y la cohabitación son fundamentales en la construcción del parentesco en los Andes Guillermo Salas Carretero el autor de este texto nos revela cómo esta misma lógica está presente en otras interacciones sociales desde aquellas entre una persona y sus afines vecinos paisanos extraños muertos hasta aquellas con montañas lagunas campos de cultivo avenidas o plazas esto es con lugares que pueden ser también parientes El autor recurre al término ruwales para referirse a estos lugares con nombre propio a los que se les atribuye agencia e intencionalidad y a través de comparaciones históricas muestra las diferentes maneras en que estos seres se relacionaban con los hacendados y las instituciones estatales antes y después de la reforma agraria con la minería de socavón previa al boom minero y con la actual minería de tajo abierto El libro combina un enfoque procesual de análisis del parentesco que no asume la reproducción sexual como el fundamento universal del mismo con trabajos recientes alrededor de socialidades que exceden a los seres humanos la multiplicidad ontológica y la cosmopolítica indígena en la antropología contemporánea

Indigene Religionen Südamerikas Mark Münzel, 2021-08-18 There are three apparently contradictory aspects that define the religious features of South America traditionally strong Catholicism Protestant and Pentecostal denominations that have gained strength since the 19th century and religions of pre-Columbian origin that have survived and developed further This volume offers a descriptive account of these strands as the living religions of people today which can be inquired into by ethnologists and religious scholars In the process the book divides South America into two religious areas the Central Andes region where pre-European traditions were already incorporated into local Christianity in many places during the colonial period and the area east of the Andes and to a lesser extent the northern and southern Andes where separate religions survived more autonomously but lost a large number of their adherents in the 20th century due to new intensive Christian missionary work Anthropos ,2006 Natures et sociétés Laurent Jérôme,2018-01-29 partir d'une approche pluridisciplinaire cet ouvrage clarifie les multiples relations qui se tablissent en Amazonie brésilienne entre natures et sociétés S'appuyant sur les réflexions qui ont émergé au cours d'un programme d'étude sur le terrain entre le Québec et le Brésil il expose les différentes manières dont les sociétés locales pensent leurs rapports à l'environnement et développent des discours pratiques et savoirs environnementaux en lien avec leurs cosmologies et leurs identités Qué sabemos de las comunidades campesinas? Pedro Castillo,2007 2004 Massimo Mastrogregori,2013-10-10 Annually published since 1930 the International Bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The IBOHS is thus currently the only continuous bibliography of its kind covering such a broad period of time spectrum of subjects and geographical range The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and alphabetically according to authors names or in the case of anonymous works by the characteristic main title word The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Bibliografía española ,2005 Deutsche Nationalbibliografie ,2005
