Dầu ăn đến kỳ nhà máy Khe Điền. Tiếp bước thành công trên

Mạch nước thương nguồn từ đây mãi Chư Tôn. Qua bao thăng bao

Iranian Journal Civil Affairs Handbook: French Indo-China United States. Army Service Forces,1943 Sources for the History of Bhutan Michael Aris,2009-01-01 The four works included in this collection have enjoyed a rather chequered career They originally formed the second volume of the doctoral thesis Michael Aris submitted in 1978 to the University of London They have been included because of their value as crucial source material on the formative era of Bhutanese history as they cover the entire period leading to the full emergence of the Bhutanese theocracy Their relative brevity as compared with the other major works relevant to this period further suggested the convenience of including them as a group of inter related minor texts While the first two works in this collection have never before been available to modern scholars and are indeed hardly known even in Bhutan the next two which include a text translated from Portuguese have been partially known from the works of John Claude White Sikkim and Bhutan Twenty one years on the North East Frontier 1887 1908 London and C Wessels Early Jesuit Travelers in Central Asia The Hague 1924

Vietnam Combat Operations 1972 - 1975 William E Le Gro, 2013-09 The years between the signature of the Paris peace accords in 1972 and the final collapse of South Vietnam in 1975 are usually neglected Very often they are little more than a footnote in histories of the Vietnam War This does a great disservice to the fighting men of South Vietnam especially the infantry Rangers airborne troops and Marines who fought long bravely and under great handicaps and hardships in defense of their country This history of the South Vietnamese armed forces operations between 1972 and 1975 reveals that during 1973 they had the upper hand in conflicts with the North Vietnamese It was the abrupt end of American economic and material support in 1974 that doomed their efforts and brought about their eventual defeat This period also saw Soviet and Chinese aid to North Vietnam transform the NVA from a largely light infantry army to a mechanized tank and artillery heavy combined arms force that so greatly outgunned the ARVN

Power Objects in Tibetan Buddhism James Duncan Gentry, 2016-12-05 In Power Objects in Tibetan Buddhism The Life Writings and Legacy of Sokdokpa Lodr Gyeltsen James Duncan Gentry explores how objects of power figure in Tibetan religion society and polity through a study of the life of the Tibetan Buddhist ritual specialist Sokdokpa Lodr Gyeltsen 1552 1624 within the broader context of sixteenth and seventeenth century Tibet In presenting Sokdokpa's career and legacy Gentry traces the theme of power objects across a wide spectrum of genres to show how Tibetan Buddhists themselves have theorized about objects of power and implemented them in practice This study therefore provides a lens into how power objects serve as points of convergence for elite doctrinal discourses socio political dynamics and popular religious practices in Tibetan Buddhist societies

Managing Monks Jonathan A. Silk,2008-10-15 The paradigmatic Buddhist is the monk It is well known that ideally Buddhist monks are expected to meditate and study to engage in religious practice The institutional structure which makes this concentration on spiritual cultivation possible is the monastery But as a bureaucratic institution the monastery requires administrators to organize and manage its functions to prepare quiet spots for meditation to arrange audiences for sermons or simply to make sure food rooms and bedding are provided The valuations placed on such organizational roles were however a subject of considerable controversy among Indian Buddhist writers with some considering them significantly less praiseworthy than meditative concentration or teaching and study while others more highly appreciated their importance Managing Monks as the first major study of the administrative offices of Indian Buddhist monasticism and of those who hold them explores literary sources inscriptions and other materials in Sanskrit Pali Tibetan and Chinese in order to explore this tension and paint a picture of the internal workings of the Buddhist monastic institution in India highlighting the ambivalent and sometimes contradictory attitudes toward administrators revealed in various sources
