Song For Eloise:

Song for Eloise Leigh Sauerwein, 2006 At fifteen Eloise is married off to a man twice her age and taken to his forlorn castle in the mountains Thomas a trobar troubadour and his companion a juggler known as Babel make their way from village to village from tavern to castle singing and entertaining While peasants work the fields knights hunt and fight and joust monks pray the hours of the day and the seasons turn Eloise and Thomas separated as children reunite Ultimately freed from her marriage to Robert by his death it is however too late for Eloise and Thomas their love seems doomed as well in this tragic but realistic story of broken hearts The Smith College Monthly, 1904 Shelley and the Musico-Poetics of

Romanticism Jessica K. Quillin, 2016-03-09 Addressing a gap in Shelley studies Jessica K Quillin explores the poet's lifelong interest in music Quillin connects the trope of music with Shelley's larger formal aesthetic political and philosophical concerns showing that music offers a new critical lens through which to view such familiar Shelleyan concerns as the status of the poetic figural language and the philosophical problem posed by idealism versus skepticism Quillin's book uncovers the implications of Shelley's use of music by means of four musico poetic concerns the inherently interdisciplinary nature of musical imagery and figurative language the rhythmic and sonoric dimensions of poetry the extension of poetry into the performative realms of the theatre and drawing room through close links between most poetic genres and music and the transformation of poetry into music through the setting and adaptation of poetic lyrics to music Ultimately Quillin argues Shelley exhibits a fundamental recognition of an interdependence between music and poetry which is expressed in the form and content of his highly sonorous works Equating music with love allows him to create a radical model in which poetry is the highest form of imaginative expression one that can affect the mind and the senses at once and potentially bring about the perfectibility of mankind through a unique mode of visionary experience It Ain't Nothin' But the Blues Charles Bevel, 2002 This sizzling revue of the blues and blues infused songs that changed the way the world hears the human heartbeat took New York by storm Ravishing songs trace the evolution of the blues from Africa to Mississippi to Memphis to Chicago

American Folk Songs Norman Cohen, 2008-09-30 This state by state collection of folksongs describes the history society culture and events characteristic of all fifty states Unlike all other state folksong collections this one does not focus on songs collected in the particular states but rather on songs concerning the life and times of the people of that state The topics range from the major historical events such as the Boston Tea Party the attack on Fort Sumter and the California Gold Rush to regionally important events such as disasters and murders labor problems occupational songs ethnic conflicts Some of the songs will be widely recognized such as Casey Jones Marching Through Georgia or Sweet Betsy from Pike Others less familiar have not been reprinted since their original publication but deserve to be studied because of what they tell about the people of these United States their loves labors and losses and their responses to events The collection is organized by regions starting with New England and ending with the states bordering the Pacific Ocean and by states within each region

For each state there are from four to fifteen songs presented with an average of 10 songs per state For each song a full text is reprinted followed by discussion of the song in its historical context References to available recordings and other versions are given Folksongs such as those discussed here are an important tool for historians and cultural historians because they sample experiences of the past at a different level from that of contemporary newspaper accounts and academic histories These songs in a sense are history writ small Includes Away Down East The Old Granite State Connecticut The Virginian Maid s Lament Carry Me Back to Old Virginny I m Going Back to North Carolina Shut up in Cold Creek Mine Ain t God Good to Iowa Dakota Land Dear Prairie Home Cheyenne Boys I m off for California and others
