Song Of Autumn:

Song of Autumn Gabriele Sibella,1916 A Song of Autumn and Other Poems Henry Meade Bland,1907 Song of Autumn A. B. Stahl,2015-09-11 Song of Autumn might best be described as a work of art rather than a piece of prose It might be considered a simple poem or an epic novel or both simultaneously It is yoga on paper it strives not to stimulate you or to create tension but rather to relax you it can be read as a meditation And what does it tell It tells of the passing of a season in these pages time passes not against the uniform ticking of a clock but as we experience it speeding up and slowing down breathing in and breathing out expanding and contracting and all the while moving forward into the inescapable future
