But it's not a despairing account: she centres Ghanaian activists and policy makers who are pioneering a new type of philanthropy, one emphasizing interdependency and social justice over anti-democratic efforts to privatize seed commons. A revelatory and insightful study. Linsey McGoey, Professor of Sociology, University of Essex, UK. Like a combine through a field of genetically modified maize, Jacqueline Ignatova cuts through the rhetoric surrounding the Green Revolution for Africa to reveal the underlying power politics and inequities that shape agricultural development in contemporary Ghana. Full of rich empirics and analytical insights, this book is essential reading for those seeking a comprehensive understanding of how public-private partnerships and philanthropy-driven initiatives are reshaping smallholder agriculture across the African continent. The United States Catalog, 1928 The Cumulative Book Index, 1900. A world list of books in the English language. The United States Catalog. Ida M. Lynn, 1928. An Introduction to World Politics. Richard Oliver Collin, Pamela L. Martin, 2012-08-02. In today's world, students need to know that there is more to politics than just politics. This clearly written text introduces students to world politics as a combination of comparative politics and international relations in an increasingly interconnected globe and explores topics that are sometimes left out of the equation: health care, the status of children, changing roles of women in the developing world, and the interplay among population growth, resources, the environment, and sustainable development. Designed specifically for introductory-level students, the book balances theory with authentic insights and examples that provide a compelling window into the struggles of citizens worldwide. Forthcoming Books. The Power of Urban Ethnic Places Jan Lin,2010-10-18 The Power of Ethnic Places discusses the growing visibility of ethnic heritage places in U S society The book examines a spectrum of case studies of Chinese Latino and African American communities in the U S disagreeing with any perceptions that the rise of ethnic enclaves and heritage places are harbingers of separatism or balkanization Instead the text argues that by better understanding the power and dynamics of ethnic enclaves and heritage places in our society we as a society will be better prepared to harness the economic and cultural changes related to globalization rather than be hurt or divided by these same forces of economic and cultural restructuring
