Ager, 2022-04-27 Magic was a fundamental part of the Greco Roman world Curses erotic spells healing charms divination and other supernatural methods of trying to change the universe were everyday methods of coping with the difficulties of life in antiquity While ancient magic is most often studied through texts like surviving Greco Egyptian spellbooks and artifacts like lead curse tablets for a Greek or Roman magician a ritual was a rich sensual experience full of unusual tastes smells textures and sounds bright colors and sensations like fasting and sleeplessness Greco Roman magical rituals were particularly dominated by the sense of smell both fragrant smells and foul odors Ritual practitioners surrounded themselves with clouds of fragrant incense and perfume to create a sweet and inviting atmosphere for contact with the divine and to alter their own perceptions they also used odors as an instrumental weapon to attack enemies and command the gods Elsewhere odiferous herbs were used equally as medical cures and magical ingredients In literature scent and magic became intertwined as metaphors with fragrant spells representing the dangers of sensual perfumes and conversely smells acting as a visceral way of envisioning the mysterious action of magic The Scent of Ancient Magic explores the complex interconnection of scent and magic in the Greco Roman world between 800 BCE and CE 600 drawing on ancient literature and the modern study of the senses to examine the sensory depth and richness of ancient magic Author Britta K Ager looks at how ancient magicians used scents as part of their spells to put themselves in the right mindset for an encounter with a god or to attack their enemies through scent Ager also examines the magicians who appear in ancient fiction like Medea and Circe and the more metaphorical ways in which their spells are confused with perfumes and herbs This book brings together recent scholarship on ancient magic from classical studies and on scent from the interdisciplinary field of sensory studies in order to examine how practicing ancient magicians used scents for ritual purposes how scent and magic were conceptually related in ancient literature and culture and how the assumption that strong scents convey powerful effects of various sorts was also found in related areas like ancient medical practices and normative religious ritual

A Chinatown Christmas Kailin Gow,2022-11-15 A Chinatown Christmas refers to the saying that you can always find a restaurant open on Christmas day in Chinatown when all the other restaurants are closed Billionaire Jake Austin has spent the last five years working through Christmas as he built his start up to a billion dollar corporation Every year he s spent Christmas Day eating at the Chen Family Cuisine Restaurant located in his local Chinatown down the street from his house It was the only restaurant opened in town Every year he always ate alone Like the cold ruthless and arrogant billionaire that he was Until this year when someone decided to sit at his table Eldest daughter of the American born Chen family in California Charisma Chen has noticed the reclusive Jake Austin dine alone at her family s restaurant for years Ever since he brutally berated her on her first day of work at his start up she s kept her distance even at her own family restaurant where she and her sisters would gather for Christmas every year to spend Christmas with her parents who insisted on keeping the restaurant open even on Christmas Day This year Charisma is going to close the restaurant for the first time on Christmas Day to give her parents a break But for some reason when Jake Austin shows up at the restaurant something inside of Charisma makes her change her mind Something that has something to do with her past or was it something to do with the ancient folklore or the Chen Family Cuisine A Chinatown Christmas is an enemies to lover romantic comedy with heart and a touch of magic appropriate for age 14 and up
