The Apocalypse of Baruch R H Charles, 2020-02-11 THE Apocalypse of Baruch is a composite work written in the latter half of the first century of the Christian era It is thus contemporaneous with the chief writings of the New Testament Its authors were orthodox Jews and it is a good representative of the Judaism against which the Pauline dialectic was directed In this Apocalypse we have almost the last noble utterance of Judaism before it plunged into the dark and oppressive years that followed the destruction of Jerusalem For ages after that epoch its people seem to have been bereft of their immemorial gifts of song and eloquence and to have had thought and energy only for the study and expansion of the traditions of the Fathers But when our book was written that evil and barren era had not yet set in breathing thought and burning word had still their home in Palestine and the hand of the Jewish artist was still master of its ancient cunning And yet the intrinsic beauty of this book must to a great degree fail to strike the casual reader Indeed it could hardly be otherwise For the present English version is a translation of the Syriac the Syriac was a translation of the Greek and the Greek in turn a translation from the The Apocalypse of Baruch and the Assumption of Moses R. Harlow, 2023-08-14 This volume represents the first comprehensive study of the Greek Apocalypse of Baruch 3 Baruch one of the most neglected of the Old Testament Pseudepigrapha Harlow discusses such introductory issues as text genre setting and function He carefully examines the chief critical issues in the study of this fascinating document including the literary integrity of the work and its original Jewish or Christian authorship He then proceeds to offer an interpretation of 3 Baruch as both a Jewish and Christian text His study succeeds in situating 3 Baruch within post 70 Hellenistic Judaism and in clarifying the early Christian interest in adapting editing and transmitting the work will find this study illuminating
