Haseeb, 2012-06-14 Concentrating on the past present and future relations of the peoples of Africa and the Arab world this book examines interaction between Arab and African countries Africa and the Arab Israeli conflict Dimensions of Afro Arab Cooperation The book concludes with an open discussion on the future of Afro Arab relations Role Theory in the Middle East and North Africa Yasemin Akbaba, Özgür Özdamar, 2019-05-15 Since December 2010 a series of uprisings revolutions coups and civil wars have shaken up the Middle East and North Africa region In this chaotic political environment several countries have been trying to influence this regional transformation The implications of this transformation are of great importance for the region its people and global politics Using a rich combination of primary and secondary sources elite interviews and content analysis Yasemin Akbaba and Özgür Özdamar apply role theory to analyze ideational e.g. identity religion and material e.g. security economy sources of national role conceptions in Egypt Iran Saudi Arabia and Turkey The authors take a closer look at the transformation of these four powers foreign policies since the beginning of Arab uprisings with a specific focus on religion Each case study is written to a common template allowing for clear comparative analyses Written in a clear and accessible style Role Theory in the Middle East and North Africa offers a thought provoking and pioneering insight into the usefulness of role theory in foreign policy making in the developing world The perfect combination of theoretically oriented and empirically rich analysis make this volume an ideal resource for scholars and researchers of International Relations Foreign Policy Middle East Politics and International Security The Role of Arab States in the

Decolonization of Africa, South of the Sahara Calixtus Sampson Idiong, 1987 Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East Terry M. Mays, 2015-06-18 The Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East focuses on international organizations in Africa And the Middle East This makes sense for political cultural and geographical reasons North African countries and many located in the Sahel region are members of not only African but also Middle Eastern international organizations due to their cultural and religious heritage as well as geographic location between Sub Saharan Africa and the Middle East A limited number of global organizations are also included in this book when they have major programs focusing on Africa and or the Middle East This volume emphasizes intergovernmental organizations but many non governmental organizations are also included This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities thematic topics and major international issues affecting the region This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this subject Regional Integration in Africa Ḥamdī 'Abd al-Raḥmān Ḥasan, 2011 Regional Integration in Africa Bridging the North Sub Saharan Divide came about as a research project conducted by the Africa Institute of South Africa and examines the North African countries strategies of involvement in the African continent and their integration initiatives The book looks at major issues involving Egypt Libya Tunisia Algeria Morocco and Mauritania These countries in most cases have been treated as separate from sub Saharan Africa However the historical reality and economic and political interests indicate that the North African countries have been and still are closely connected with the rest of the African continent Egypt for example was one of the leading countries in the African unity movement and together with Libya has contributed to the restructuring of the African continental organisation and the establishment of the African Union The book consists of two parts The first part includes five chapters written in English the second part of the book comprises six chapters written in Arabic Politics of Change in Middle East and North Africa since Arab Spring Md. Muddassir Quamar, 2022-12-29 A decade since the eruption of Arab Spring protests in the Middle East and North Africa the region continues to confront the primary causes of the popular disenchantment including economic deprivation bad governance corruption and limited avenues for political expression Democratisation the buzzword in 2011 has given way to debates around conflict management and resolution Simultaneously there are mounting economic challenges throughout the region that have been aggravated by the COVID 19 pandemic But there are some silver linings such as a focus on reforms greater scrutiny against corruption demand for better governance and awareness regarding women empowerment and rights of minorities The volume Politics of Change in the Middle East and North Africa since Arab Spring A Lost Decade commemorates the ten years of the eruption of Arab Spring protests It captures some of the prevailing political economic strategic and social issues in MENA through thematic or country specific essays that explore the ongoing transformations and underline how despite the hopelessness the MENA societies have made progress on various fronts Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Making a World after Empire Christopher J. Lee, 2019-08-19 In April 1955 twenty nine countries from Africa Asia and the Middle East came together for a diplomatic conference in Bandung Indonesia intending to define the direction of the postcolonial world Ostensibly representing two thirds of the world s population the Bandung conference occurred during a key moment of transition in the mid twentieth century amid the global wave of decolonization that took place after the Second World War and the nascent establishment of a new Cold War world order in its wake Participants such as Jawaharlal Nehru of India Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt Zhou Enlai of China and Sukarno of Indonesia seized this occasion to attempt the creation of a political alternative to the dual threats of Western neocolonialism and the Cold War interventionism of the United States and the Soviet Union The essays collected here explore the diverse repercussions of this event tracing diplomatic intellectual and sociocultural histories that ensued as well as addressing the broader intersection of postcolonial and Cold War history With a new foreword by Vijay Prashad and a new preface by the editor Making a World after Empire speaks to contemporary discussions of decolonization Third Worldism and the emergence of the Global South thus reestablishing the conference s importance in twentieth century global history Contributors Michael Adas Laura Bier James R

Introductory note page 9 Political and Social Thought in Africa Sharawy, Helmi,2015-03-02 The essays collected together in this book reflect the author's varied experiences in the realms of politics and social struggle he notes that they cannot be separated from his other experiences in his country Egypt over the years These experiences extend from popular culture or folklore through the wider political world of African liberation politics to the Committee for the Defense of National Culture This book is like a long trip through African culture from the 1950s to the beginning of the 21st century These essays will most likely provoke a lot of memories sweet and bitter with maybe the bitter ones as the more lasting The author notes that it appears as if the only relationship that seems to have mattered for a long time for the Egyptians with the rest of Africa was the river Nile which joins the country to ten other countries while a vast desert stands in between Such separation ignores the ancient relations between Pharaonic Egypt and the rest of Africa and the role of Egypt in supporting many liberation movements on the continent The author has set himself some tough questions in this book Is it legitimate today to use race to sub divide the African continent Can this moreover be simply done as if race is ahistorical or an idealistic concept of identities Or are we going to talk about Arabism in Egypt Libya or Maghreb as if it were an identity gained with the advent of the Arabs implying that these were lands with no people a sort of No Man's Land Or was this a fragile space that could not confront the invading empire Or will Arabism equate with Bantuism or negroism sometimes and Hausa and Swahili cultures at other times These are the types of issues that Helmi Sharawy examines in this very important book Experiences that inform this book began with the author's first encounter in March 1956 with some African youths who were in Cairo for higher studies or as representatives of liberation movements with whom he worked as an intermediary with the Egyptian national state which work left on him an everlasting impression
