The Architecture Of Los Angeles:

Los Angeles Reyner Banham, 2009-03-05 Originally published London Allen Lane 1971 Los Angeles Architecture James Steele, 1998-01-22 A penetrating study of the city's fascinating and seductive architectural scene Architecture in Los Angeles, 1985 The Architecture of Los Angeles Paul Gleye, Julius Shulman, Bruce Boehner, Los Angeles Conservancy, 1981 Architecture in Los Angeles : a complete guide David Gebhard, Robert Winter, 1985 Looking for Los Angeles Charles G. Salas, Michael S. Roth, 2001 In Looking for Los Angeles 12 contributors present their responses to the world's newest major city. A variety of perspectives and approaches are covered. The text balances the importance of place with the importance of culture. L.A. Deco Carla Breeze, 1991 The architecture and interior design of 1920s and 1930s Los Angeles is celebrated in this delightful photographic tour of fabulously detailed residential commercial and public buildings. The distinctive Southern California version of the Art Deco style is revealed from the hilltop Griffith Observatory to the houses designed by Lloyd Wright among many others. An insightful introduction by respected architectural historian David Gebhard discusses the history of the style as it was adopted in the sunny rather sleepy region during the early decades of the twentieth century. As a guidebook to extant architecture of the period in Los Angeles L A Deco offers the latest look at these historic buildings through the lens of Carla Breeze a New York City based photographer and the author of Pueblo Deco. Book jacket Los Angeles Anton Wagner, 2022-07-12 For the first time Anton Wagner's groundbreaking 1935 book that launched the study of Los Angeles as an urban metropolis is available in English. No book on the emergence of Los Angeles today a metropolis of more than four million people has been more influential or elusive than this volume by Anton Wagner. Originally published in German in 1935 as Los Angeles Werden Leben und Gestalt der Zweimillionenstadt in S dkalifornien it is one of the earliest geographical investigations of a city understood as a series of layered landscapes. Wagner demonstrated that despite its geographical disadvantages Los Angeles grew rapidly into a dominant urban region bolstered by agriculture real estate development transportation infrastructure tourism the oil and automobile industries and the film business. Although widely reviewed upon its initial publication his book was largely forgotten until reintroduced by architectural historian Reyner Banham in his 1971 classic Los Angeles The Architecture of Four Ecologies. This definitive translation is annotated by Edward Dimendberg and preceded by his substantial introduction which traces Wagner's biography and intellectual formation in 1930s Germany and contextualizes his work among that of other geographers. It is an essential work for students scholars and curious readers interested in urban geography and the rise of Los Angeles as a global metropolis. Los Angeles in the Thirties, 1931-1941 David Gebhard, Harriette Von Breton, 1989 Speed mobility freedom these governed the aesthetics of the city of the future as it spread its arterials across the Southern California landscape. If ever a city and a decade seemed meant for each other it was Los Angeles and the streamlined 30s. The gloom of the Depression did little to curb the dynamism of this optimistic greedy sprawling metropolis. The Hollywood dream machine mirrored the aspirations of millions of Americans a single family home and yard the independence of a private car on uncluttered streets and the latest household conveniences And L A s built environment reflected the dreams realizing in fact what the film sets offered in fantasy with imagery ranging from up to date recreations of popular period styles to the stripped classic monumentality of public buildings and on toward the future in the sleek Moderne of curved corners fluidly bent neon and metal tubing and sculpted surfaces of stucco and glass brick Attention is focused on the types of architectural imagery used in commercial public and residential buildings Page 4 of cover
