Abraham's Bind Micheal J. Caduto,2011-03-02 Ancient stories from the Bible offer lessons for today s world Little has changed over the millennia Our existence remains suspended between the realm of the eternal and the elemental plane of the material world This tension pulls at our hearts and minds as we attempt to find our true selves in relationship to each other and to God This is the crucible of our lives the true test of our powers of strength and conviction in the face of adversity our wrestling with the range of human emotion from jealousy and rage to kindness sacrifice and generosity toward the ones we love from the Introduction With insight thoughtfulness and wit these provocative and entertaining re imaginings of stories from the Bible highlight the ways God can work for and through us even today Barren and despairing Sarah becomes pregnant learning that nothing is impossible Jacob the trickster is in turn tricked into marrying the wrong wife learning that what goes around comes around Joseph is sold into slavery by his brothers only to rise to wield power of life and death over them learning that patience and integrity will win out in the end Through multifaceted characters original stories and vivid natural imagery Caduto brings this ancient world to life He immerses you in a richly textured experience of another time and place Within these pages you will come to see these familiar tales through new eyes

God the What? Carolyn Jane Bohler, 2011-03-31 Challenge our common images of God by blowing the lid off conventional God descriptors We do not have to let go of one sense of God to take up another Neither do we need to go about challenging old metaphors What is crucial is to find a metaphor or two or six that creatively point toward what we believe from Chapter 1 Let Carolyn Jane Bohler inspire you to consider a wide range of images of God in order to refine how you imagine God to have and use power and how God wills and makes divine will happen or not By tapping into your God given ability to re imagine God you will have a better understanding of your own beliefs and how you God and the world relate to each other Wonderfully fresh and down to earth Bohler uses playful images moving stories and solid scholarship to empower you to break free of old habits and assumptions whatever your faith tradition She encourages you to explore new names for God that are not only more consistent with what you believe but will also deepen and expand your experience of God Think about God the Choreographer of Chaos God the Nursing Mother God the Jazz Band Leader God the Divine Blacksmith God the Divine Physical Therapist God the Team Transformer and more

Sacred Attention Margaret D. McGee, 2010-09 Just One Moment of Close Attention Can Be a Prayer to God Does God communicate through the natural world Through the slug on the compost pile the leaf on the lawn the stone tumbled on the beach the air that feeds my lungs the dreams that fill my nights How will I know unless I pay attention from the Introduction Paying attention is rarely easy to do It requires focus patience and a willingness to slow down traits that are hard to come by in this hurry up world But close attention to even one small piece of creation one object person routine image word or scripture can become a prayer to God opening a channel of communication between you and the Divine to allow for deep spiritual growth In this inspiring guide you will discover ways to develop a practice of attention as a means of talking and listening to God Framed on the Christian liturgical year and paired with images of the seasons of the earth each chapter includes an insightful and poignant narrative which illustrates the surprising richness to be found in every attention getting moment Following each narrative is a prayer suggested scripture readings and a specific exercise you can use to develop your own practice of attention as a means to better connect with God Accessible humorous and meaningful these words and practices will lead you further along your path toward discovering a deeper awareness of yourself and your relationship to all that is around you and within you
