Roman copies of classical sculpture pieces of jewelry and more Greek Art and Archaeology John Griffiths Pedley,1998

John Griffiths Pedley's Greek Art and Archaeology quickly established itself as the most authoritative and comprehensive general survey of Greek art when it was first published in 1993. It ranges over 3 000 years of civilization in the Aegean and Greek worlds from the earliest evidence of Bronze Age cultures in the third millennium B C to the very end of the Hellenistic period in Rome. This Second Edition significantly expands the discussion of Hellenistic art and architecture. Many important archaeological discoveries of the last six years on the Greek mainland at Troy and at sites of Greek colonization which have altered old interpretations of what happened at the dawn of Western civilization are incorporated. Throughout the text is extensively illustrated with outstanding color and black and white photographs. Virtually every object mentioned is represented with an illustration and in many cases a plan or diagram.

The Art of Painting in Ancient Greece Dimitris Plantzos,2018 This new and richly illustrated overview of Greek painting combines a fresh scholarly approach to visual arts with the most complete survey to date of the painted monuments of classical antiquity. The Art of Painting in Ancient Greece covers a wide chronological and geographical span from the Bronze Age murals of Knossos, Santorini and Mycenae to the opulent villas of the Roman Empire from Anatolia and Egypt in the East to Campania and Etruria in the West. Surveying the techniques, materials and works produced as well as ancient literary accounts, the book engages the five main lines of inquiry: Why did the Greeks cover the walls of their sanctuaries, agoras, palaces, homes and even their tombs with painted images? What topics, real or imaginary, did they choose to depict? How were those images created? What were the techniques employed and the materials used? Who painted those images? And how does the spectacular phenomenon of Greek monumental painting compare with other branches of Greek art from mosaics and vase painting to sculpture.
