The Dilemma Of Narcissus:

The Dilemma of Narcissus Louis Lavelle, 1973 Ortega's The Revolt of the Masses and the Triumph of the New Man
Pedro Blas Gonzalez, 2007 This book is first and foremost a detailed and meticulous study of Ortega y Gasset's The Revolt of the Masses 1930 No other up to date books explore this thinker and his great work Most importantly the author demonstrates the relevance and importance of Ortega y Gasset's thought and his The Revolt of the Masses for today's world showing for instance how Ortega's categories like mass man and decadence have been vindicated by today's spiritual moral and cultural decay This aspect of the book will perhaps be of major interest to the reading public What Ortega argues for in his brief history of philosophy is something that he has otherwise made explicit throughout his work mainly his conviction that strictly speaking philosophy as an activity or manner of thinking that faces naked reality holistically ended long ago with the ancient Greeks All subsequent philosophical endeavors have been merely a rehashing or an academic commentary on the pre-existing philosophical canon This latter activity he saw as pertaining to the history of philosophy but he did not regard it as philosophy Philosophy as a vital and life forging way of life he argued had played out its originality and thus had run its course long ago With a glossary of special terms as used by Ortega and with references to Albert Camus Gabriel Marcel C S Lewis Friedrich Nietzsche Josef Pieper and others this work is a fundamental tool for any student of Ortega of existentialism and 20th century European philosophy Pedro Blas Gonzalez is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Barry University in Miami His areas of specialization include Continental philosophy specifically Phenomenology Existentialism and philosophical aspects of literature His works include Fragments Essays In Subjectivity Individuality And Autonomy Algora 2005 and Human Existence as Radical Reality Ortega's Philosophy of Subjectivity Paragon House 2005 Gonzalez holds a Ph D in Philosophy from DePaul University The Dilemma of Narcissus. Translated From the French With Introd. and Notes by W.T. Gairdner
Louis Lavelle, 1973 Unwording the World Carla Locatelli, 2016-11-11 This comprehensive study of Beckett's art proposes a doubly contextualized reading of his later works Carla Locatelli reads late Beckett through his previous writings and relates them to the literary philosophical and critical community which surrounds him To appreciate his contribution as an epistemological rhetorician she proposes a multidisciplinary approach that draws upon a remarkably wide range of theorists including Kierkegaard Husserl Heidegger Peirce Jakobson Deleuze Lacan and Derrida In Part One of this study Locatelli traces the evolution of Beckett's writing proposing that his principal concern devolves more and more upon the essential character of representation and its role in the constitution and signification of the subject Part One also provides a history of this thematic showing how Beckett's writing effects a radical displacement of representation from function to object of discourse In Part Two Locatelli focuses on Beckett's fiction after the Nobel Prize of 1969 and on the epistemological and aesthetic issues in Company 1980 Ill Seen Ill Said 1981 and Worstward Ho 1983 She examines his unwording in this Second Trilogy and defines it as a process of subtraction that probes into the most basic mode of our being in the world Here Beckett proposes as Locatelli suggests a very real hermeneutics of experience beyond the schools of suspicion which are still influencing some postmodernist thinking This volume will be of particular value to scholars and students of twentieth century English literature French literature and literary theory

Christian Mysticism and Incarnational Theology Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-05-23 This book examines the relationship between transcendence and immanence within Christian mystical and apophatic writings Original essays from a range of leading established and emerging scholars in the field focus on the roles of language signs and images and consider how mystical theology might contribute to contemporary reflection on the Word incarnate This collection of essays re-examines works from such canonical figures as Eckhart Augustine Plotinus Pseudo Dionysius Nicolas of Cusa Teresa of Avila John of the Cross Julian of Norwich along with the philosophical thought of Iris Murdoch Jacques Lacan and Martin Heidegger and the contemporary phenomena of the Emerging Church Presenting new readings of key ideas in mystical theology and renewed engagement with the visionary and the everyday the therapeutic and the transformative these essays question how we might think about what may lie between transcendence and immanence

The Song that I Am Élisabeth-Paule Labat, 2014 The Song That I Am On the Mystery of Music is a short but full to the brim essay on the decisive role that great music whether Bach Taverner or Gregorian chant ought to play in the spiritual life With admirable restraint Elisabeth Paule Labat shares her interior experience of music and thus continually opens up fresh vistas through worlds of sound and spirit With her uncanny gift of language Labat precisely describes soundings and yearnings of the soul that many of us glimpse fleetingly Because only the lover sings St Augustine her final illumination is that the experience of profound music ought to transform us into the beauty that we hear

The Analogical Turn Johannes Hoff, 2013-11-11 Recovers a 15th century thinker's original insights for theology and philosophy today Societies today says Johannes Hoff are characterized by their inability to reconcile seemingly black and white scientific rationality with the ambiguity of postmodern pop culture In the face of this crisis his book The Analogical Turn recovers the fifteenth century thinker Nicholas of Cusa's alternative vision of modernity to develop a fresh perspective on the challenges of our time In contrast to his mainstream contemporaries Cusa's appreciation of individuality creativity and scientific precision was deeply rooted in the analogical rationality of the Middle Ages He revived and transformed the tradition of scientific realism in a manner that now retrospectively offers new insights into the completely ordinary chaos of postmodern everyday life Hoff s original study offers a new vision of the history of modernity and the related secularization narrative a deconstruction of the basic assumptions of postmodernism and an unfolding of a liturgically grounded concept of common sense realism

Texts and the Self in the Twelfth Century

Sarah Spence,1996-12-12 Texts and the Self in the Twelfth Century analyses key twelfth century Latin and vernacular texts which articulate a subjective often autobiographical stance The contention is that the self forged in medieval literature could not have come into existence without both the gap between Latinity and the vernacular and a shift in perspective towards a visual and spatial orientation This results in a self which is not an agent that will act on the outside world like the Renaissance self but rather one which inhabits a potential middle ground or space of agency explained here partly in terms of object relations theory

Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals

JenniferL. Shaw,2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun s Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun s most important published work Aveux non avenues Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenues This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenues not only explore Cahun s own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun s work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era s artistic avant garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist s personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I
