glorious bite you glance down and there it is your dog in the most theatrical begging position you've ever seen. It's like watching a Broadway audition but instead of a hopeful actor you have a golden retriever with the soulful eyes of a seasoned performer. First they drop to their front paws stretching out as if they're about to do the downward dog yoga pose but let's be honest they're not exactly channeling their inner Zen. No they're channeling their inner I will melt your heart if it kills me. And then oh the eyes. Those big pleading eyes that seem to say I haven't eaten in weeks and if you don't share your pizza I might just wither away into a sad little furball. It's a look that could make a stone statue crumble.
