The Dutch: how They Live and Work Ann Hoffmann,1973 The Dutch; how They Live and Work Ann Hoffmann,2013 The Dutch : how They Live and Work Hoffmann, Ann,1974 The Myths We Live By Raphael Samuel,Paul Thompson,2021-11-30 First published in 1990 The Myths We Live By explores how memory and tradition are continually reshaped and recycled to make sense of the past from the standpoint of the present The book makes use of the rich material of recorded life stories with examples stretching from the transient myths of contemporary Italian school children on strike back to the family legends of classical Greece and the traditional storytelling of Canadian Indians The range of examples is international and together they advocate a transformed history which actively relates subjective and objective past and present politics and poetry and highlights history as a living force in the present The Myths We Live By will appeal to anyone interested in oral history memory and myth Young People's Literature in Series: Publishers' and Non-fiction Series Judith K. Rosenberg,Kenyon C. Rosenberg,1973 Divided by Faith Benjamin J. Kaplan,2010-03-30 As religious violence flares around the world we are confronted with an acute dilemma Can people coexist in peace when their basic beliefs are irreconcilable Benjamin Kaplan responds by taking us back to early modern Europe when the issue of religious toleration was no less pressing than it is today Divided by Faith begins in the wake of the Protestant Reformation when the unity of western Christendom was shattered and takes us on a panoramic tour of Europe s religious landscape and its deep fault lines over the next three centuries Kaplan s grand canvas reveals the patterns of conflict and toleration among Christians Jews and Muslims across the continent from the British Isles to Poland It lays bare the complex realities of day to day interactions and calls into question the received wisdom that toleration underwent an evolutionary rise as Europe grew more enlightened We are given vivid examples of the improvised arrangements that made peaceful coexistence possible and shown how common folk contributed to toleration as significantly as did intellectuals and rulers Bloodshed was prevented not by the high ideals of tolerance and individual rights upheld today but by the pragmatism charity and social ties that continued to bind people divided by faith Divided by Faith is both history from the bottom up and a much needed challenge to our belief in the triumph of reason over faith This compelling story reveals that toleration has taken many guises in the past and suggests that it may well do the same in the future The Athenæum ,1854 The Works of John Dryden,; Amboyna, or The cruelties of the Dutch to the English merchants, a tragedy. The state of innocence, and fall of a man, an opera. Aureng-Zebe, a tragedy. All for love, or The world well lost, a tragedy John Dryden,Walter Scott,1808 The Works Henry Fielding,1861 A Collection of Voyages Undertaken by the Dutch East-India Company Constantin de Renneville,1703
