The Dynamic Of Tradition:

The Dynamics of Santal Traditions in a Peasant Society George E. Somers, 1985-12 Industrial Dynamics B.

Carlsson, 2012-12-06 This book is based on the papers presented at a conference on New Issues in Industrial Economics held at Case Western Reserve University Cleveland Ohio June 8 10 1987 The conference was organized by the Research Program in Industrial Economics RPIE in the Department of Economics at CWRU and was sponsored by The Cleveland Foundation the Eaton Corporation and The Standard Oil Company later renamed BP America Inc Their generous support is gratefully acknowledged All of the papers have been revised in several cases extensively since their presentation at the conference One of the primary reasons for organizing the conference was the concern that Industrial Economics has become too narrowly focused in most academic programs largely being confined to Industrial Organization i e issues of public policy towards enterprise with emphasis on antitrust and regulatory policy This subject definition leaves out a number of interesting and important questions about how industries evolve over time what the role of technological change and organizational change is in that process and the associated structural changes within industries and firms The object of this book is to derme these issues and suggest a framework within which they can be analyzed I would like to thank all the conference participants for their contributions particularly my colleagues at CWRU Asim Erdilek and William S Peirce without whose encouragement and support the conference would not have taken place Boundaries, Dynamics and Construction of Traditions in South Asia Federico Squarcini, 2011-12-15 Boundaries Dynamics and Construction of Traditions in South Asia explores the dynamic constructions and applications of the concept of tradition that occurred within the South Asian context during the ancient and pre colonial periods This collection of essays features a significant selection of the specialized fields of knowledge that have shaped classical South Asian intellectual history and the aim of this volume is to offer a stimulating anthology of papers on the different and complex processes employed during the invention construction preservation and renewal of a given tradition Faces of Tradition in Chinese Performing Arts Levi S. Gibbs, 2020-02-11 Case studies examining the individual s role in how traditional Chinese performing arts like music and dance are represented maintained and cultivated Faces of Tradition in Chinese Performing Arts examines the key role of the individual in the development of traditional Chinese performing arts such as music and dance These artists and their artistic works the faces of tradition come to represent and reconfigure broader fields of cultural production in China today The contributors to this volume explore the ways in which performances and recordings including singing competitions textual anthologies ethnographic videos and CD albums serve as discursive spaces where individuals engage with and redefine larger traditions and themselves By focusing on the performance scholarship collection and teaching of instrumental music folksong and classical dance from a variety of disciplines these case studies highlight the importance of the individual in determining how traditions have been and are represented maintained and cultivated Faces of Tradition in Chinese Performing Arts examines the dynamic relationship between individual representatives of tradition and the evolution of the traditions themselves A C Shahriari Kent State University Choice Modernity, the Environment, and the Christian Just War Tradition Mark Douglas,2022-05-26 In this volume Mark Douglas presents an environmental history of the Christian just war tradition Focusing on the transition from its late medieval into its early modern form he explores the role the tradition has played in conditioning modernity and generating modernity's blindness to interactions between the natural and the political Douglas criticizes problematic myths that have driven conventional narratives about the history of the tradition and suggests a revised approach that better accounts for the evolution of that tradition through time Along the way he provides new interpretations of works by Francisco de Vitoria and Hugo Grotius and provocatively the Constitution of the United States of America Sitting at the intersection of just war thinking environmental history and theological ethics Douglas's book serves as a timely guide for responses to wars in a warming world as they increasingly revolve around the flashpoints of religion resources and refugees The Dynamics of Cultural Counterpoint in Asian Studies David Jones,Michele Marion,2014-03-01 Essays on a wide range of areas and topics in Asian studies for scholars looking to incorporate Asia into their worldview and teaching Contributors give contemporary presence to Asian studies through a variety of themes and topics in this multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary volume In an era of globalization scholars trained in Western traditions increasingly see the need to add materials and perspectives that have been lacking in the past Accessibly written and void of jargon this work provides an adaptable entrance to Asia for the integration of topics into courses in the humanities social sciences cultural studies and global studies Guiding principles developed at the East West Center include noting uncommon differences the interplay among Asian societies and traditions the erosion of authenticity and cultural tradition as an Asian phenomenon as well as a Western one and the possibilities Asian concepts offer for conceiving culture outside Asian contexts The work ranges from South to Southeast to East Asia Essays deal with art aesthetics popular culture religion geopolitical realities geography history and contemporary times This volume truly lies at the intersection of scholarship and teaching Each essay has the potential to help rethink approaches to scholarly issues and there is a great deal of material for classroom discussion and examples The book's breadth covering India China Korea the Sea of Malay Bhutan and other locations is impressive Robert Andr LaFleur Beloit College Cultural Dynamics of Religious Change in Oceania T. Otto,A. Borsboom,2022-07-04 Developed from papers presented at the first European Colloquium on Pacific Studies this volume addresses the dynamics of contemporary Oceanic religions In particular the contributors investigate how indigenous populations have come to terms with the enormous impact of colonization and missionization while maintaining a distinct cultural and religious identity Personality: Determinants, Dynamics, and Potentials Gian Vittorio Caprara,Daniel Cervone,2000-08-15 This book first published in 2000 is a comprehensive survey of research and theory in personality psychology Ethnosymbolism and the Dynamics of Identity Liu Mingxin,Elya Tzaneva,2015-10-13 This book is an exploration of the potential of the ethnosymbolic approach to nation and identity to act as an instrumental tool for research into the mechanisms of identity building Using insights and data from Bulgarian history and culture it views the construction of Bulgarian national identity as a modern process intimately affected by circumstances which prevailed in nineteenth century Bulgarian society and also as a process which for its structural and psychological prerequisites drew upon and reworked various specific features and peculiarities of an available but always malleable and never fixed Bulgarian ethnic and cultural tradition The development of Bulgarian national identity drew in combination or mutual interaction upon two main sources namely a process of articulating systematising and rationalising ideas of group commonality and ethnic distinctiveness and the mobilising and politicising effect of modern economic and political forces upon that intersubjective process The overall means of national identity construction in all its complexity was achieved as a symbiosis between the historical continuity of a collective ethnic inheritance and the modern dynamics of its political activation and mobilisation The book combines diachronically the ideas and logic of social evolution with a synchronic approach that draws upon the so called instrumentalist view of ethnic phenomena It explores the cultural landscape of available ethnic notions and terms that were utilised as expressions of Bulgarian ethnic identity but which also in that process reshaped all this in response to the changing conditions of Bulgarian society in the nineteenth century As such the book offers an in depth investigation of how ideas of national identity were formed and changed within a modernist framework Furthermore it shows how ethnosymbolism used as a tool and instrumentarium for national identity construction can reveal the main patterns that contribute to what is defined as a discursive construction of identity dynamics
