Landscape between Ideology and the Aesthetic Andrew Hemingway, 2016-11-28 At a time of growing interest in relations between Marxism and Romanticism Andrew Hemingway s essays on British art and art theory reopen the question of Romantic painting s ideological functions and in some cases its critical purchase Half the volume exposes the voices of competing class interests in aesthetics and art theory in the tumultuous years of British history between the American Revolution and the 1832 Parliamentary Reform Act Half offers new perspectives on works by some of the most important landscape painters of the time John Constable J M W Turner John Crome and John Sell Cotman Four essays are hitherto unpublished and the remainder have been updated and in several cases substantially rewritten for this volume

Thomas Cole's Journey Elizabeth Mankin Kornhauser, Tim Barringer , 2018-01-29 Thomas Cole 1801 1848 is celebrated as the greatest American landscape artist of his generation Though previous scholarship has emphasized the American aspects of his formation and identity never before has the British born artist been presented as an international figure in direct dialogue with the major landscape painters of the age Thomas Cole s Journey emphasizes the artist s travels in England and Italy from 1829 to 1832 and his crucial interactions with such painters as Turner and Constable For the first time it explores the artist s most renowned paintings The Oxbow 1836 and The Course of Empire cycle 1834 36 as the culmination of his European experiences and of his abiding passion for the American wilderness The four essays in this lavishly illustrated catalogue examine how Cole s first hand knowledge of the British industrial revolution and his study of the Roman Empire positioned him to create works that offer a distinctive even dissident response to the economic and political rise of the United States the ecological and economic changes then underway and the dangers that faced the young nation A detailed chronology of Cole's life focusing on his European tour retraces the artist's travels as documented in his journals letters and sketchbooks providing new insight into his encounters and observations With discussions of over seventy works by Cole as well as by the artists he admired and influenced this book allows us to view his work in relation to his European antecedents and competitors demonstrating his major contribution to the history of Western art Reading Landscape Simon Pugh,1990 Library Journal ,1996 Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Karl Brown,Bertine Emma Weston,Helen E. Volume of the Walpole Society Walpole Society (Great Britain),2001 The Early Paintings and Drawings of John Constable Graham Reynolds,John Constable,1996 A Social History of Modern Art, Volume 2 Albert Boime,1993-05-15 In this second volume Albert Boime continues his work on the social history of Western art in the Modern epoch This volume offers a major critique and revisionist interpretation of Western European culture history and society from Napoleon's seizure of power to 1815 Boime argues that Napoleon manipulated the production of images as well as information generally in order to maintain his political hegemony He examines the works of French painters such as Jacques Louis David and Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres to illustrate how the art of the time helped to further the emperor's propagandistic goals He also explores the work of contemporaneous English genre painters Spain's Francisco de Goya the German Romantics Philipp Otto Runge and Caspar David Friedrich and the emergence of a national Italian art Heavily illustrated this volume is an invaluable social history of modern art during the Napoleonic era Stimulating and informative this volume will become a valuable resource for faculty and undergraduates R W Liscombe Choice Agnew's 150th Anniversary Loan Exhibition of Paintings and Watercolours by J.M.W.
