The Hearts Of Darkness How White Writers Created The Racist Image Of Africa:

The Hearts of Darkness Milton Allimadi, 2002 The America That I Didn't Know Existed Francis

Kwarteng, 2020-09-09 The American Dream is a popular concept It is a celebrated mantra But does it really exist Even if it does is it for everyone The American experiment tells a different story Examples abound of many for whom the American Dream is an empty rhetoric Although America prides itself on liberal ideas of equity social justice and equality for all harnessing the potential benefits of the American Dream is far from true for many hardworking educated Americans Inasmuch as the American Dream may exist for some white privilege employment and educational discrimination racism may stand in the way of achieving one's fullest potential This is compounded by the Eurocentric content of the American curriculum which denies equal representation to non white Americans in the marketplace of ideas reinforcing their sociopolitical and epistemic marginalization In a remarkably wide ranging and moving book Francis Kwarteng has provided us with one of the most honest and earnest assessments of what immigrants find in the United States The book The America That I Didn't Know Existed reminds me of the complex reasons people are attracted to the American society and the disappointment that they find when they sometimes discover that what one reads about America is not truly the best way to know America Kwarteng has lived studied and learned in America and he counts these experiences as blessings as anyone would who has seen possibilities However this determined intellectual has shown us a path forward with acceptance and humanity This riveting book has the making of an incredibly powerful drama as well Molefi Kete Asante author of Erasing Racism The Survival of the American Nation Francis Kwarteng's book recounts his personal journey to America by reliving the challenges and struggles he had to overcome to realize that the dream he once imagined was only a mirage The author provides the rationale behind his decision to come to America and the subsequent disillusion with the gap between his aspirations and realities on American soil Framed within the intellectual lens of Afrocentricity Kwarteng exposes and critiques the prevailing dominance of Eurocentric constructs that systemically dehumanizes and perforce disempowers persons of African descent The result of this is a readable empowering page turning memoir that will resonate with every African immigrant Kwame Akonor is Associate Professor of Political Science at Seton Hall University USA founding director of the New York based African Development Institute and author of African Economic Institutions

An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng, 2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization And yet people generally don't want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization The skeptics include Africans themselves a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa and even those Africans who acquire Western education particularly in the humanities have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled This is where African agency comes in Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development pedagogy historiography literary theory indigenous language development and knowledge construction Science technology engineering mathematics information and communications technology STEM ICT and research and development R D both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization In this context Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material spiritual scientific and epistemic assertion Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop Ama Mazama Molefi Kete Asante Abdul Karim Bangura Theophile Obenga Maulana Karenga Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah Ivan Van Sertima W E B Du Bois and several others Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens Ama Mazama editor author of Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet a.k.a Ancient Egypt Well that long drought has ended with the publication of Kwarteng's An Intellectual Biography of Africa A Philosophical Anatomy of Advancing Africa the Diopian Way Prepare to be educated Milton Allimadi author of Manufacturing Hate How Africa Was Demonized in the Media

Culpability of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade

Abdul Karim Bangura, 2016-12-07 This book contributes to the debate over the culpability of the Trans Atlantic Slave from various disciplinary perspectives The general thesis that undergirds the book is that by knowing who was predisposed to benefit the most from the trade and why prompting them to initiate it appropriate culpability can be assigned This approach also allowed for a more in depth analysis of the issue from many disciplines making it the first of its kind For the sake of cohesion and coherence some of the major questions addressed by every chapter are quite similar albeit authors were encouraged to fine tune and add to these questions to meet their disciplinary requirements By emphasizing the why in some of the questions a qualitative explanatory case study approach was utilized Both primary and secondary data sources were also used for each chapter to offer a cogent analysis and new information on the topic

The Biafran War and Postcolonial Humanitarianism Lasse Heerten, 2017-09-28 In the summer of 1968 audiences around the globe were shocked when newspapers and television stations confronted them with photographs of starving children in the secessionist Republic of Biafra This global concern fundamentally changed how the Nigerian Civil War was perceived an African civil war that had been fought for one year without fostering any substantial interest from international publics became Biafra the epitome of humanitarian crisis Based on archival research from North America Western Europe and Sub Saharan Africa this book is the first comprehensive study of the global history of the conflict A major addition to the flourishing history of human rights and humanitarianism it argues that the global moment Biafra is closely linked to the ascendance of human rights humanitarianism and Holocaust memory in a postcolonial world The conflict was a key episode for the re structuring of the relations between the West and the Third World The International Relations of Sub-Saharan Africa Ian Taylor,2010-04-01 This title examines Sub Saharan Africa s relations with states such as the US India China the EU and Britain as well as with non state actors The International Relations of Sub Saharan Africa is an in depth examination Africa s place in global politics The book provides a comprehensive and critical appraisal of the ways in which peace prosperity and democracy are being advanced or restricted by the activities of the great powers in Africa including non state actors as well as who benefits from these policies and who does not The book is a needed comparative study of the role of great powers and new actors such as China and India in Africa within the wider context of neo liberal hegemony It fills a gap in the literature and will be of interest to any student of the continent Its focus on external actors contributes to providing a fuller picture of Africa s place in the global political economy and how the continent interacts with the rest of the world This is an essential work for anyone researching issues in international relations comparative foreign policies and African politics Contemporary Africa and the Foreseeable World Order Gilad Ben-Nun,Cristina D'Alessandro,Zach Levey,Francis Onditi,2019-04-10 Contemporary Africa and the Foreseeable World Ordersheds light on theplace of Africa Agency in the competitive and changing global system This book provides scholars policymakers and other stakeholders studying and working on African issues with innovative solutions strategies knowledge insights case studies and analyses to support decision making on how best African states should position themselves in the dynamic global system in order to influence key decisions Featuring themes such as the African Union AU and the consequences of the discovery of oil in the non traditional oil exporting countries the editors and contributors have demonstrated why and how Africa s position in the foreseeable world order is largely dependent on the influence of both existing and emerging world powers Narratives of Storytelling across Cultures Tony R. DeMars,Gabriel B. Tait,2019-09-18 Narratives of Storytelling Across Cultures demonstrates how meaning found within interpersonal communication is not universal across all cultures Miscommunication can occur when the foundations of cultural meaning within stories as told socially and within media vary among different cultures Positioned within the communication and media field this book connects issues of societal tension and political battles to media portrayals social communication events and power dynamics that result when people with different meanings systems attempt to negotiate truth among their competing narratives After establishing the theoretical foundation of the book contributors provide specific case studies that demonstrate underlying cultural components and complexities that lead to these issues Tony R DeMars and Gabriel Tait have assembled contributors with research experience and understanding of intercultural communication challenges in different social groups allowing the book to take on a broader scope of intercultural communication Scholars of communication conflict resolution political science sociology and media studies will find this book particularly useful

African, American David Peterson del Mar,2017-06-15 Africa has long gripped the American imagination From the Edenic wilderness of Edgar Rice Burroughs s Tarzan novels to the black Zion of Garvey s Back to Africa movement all manner of Americans whether white or black male or female have come to see Africa as an idealized stage on which they can fashion new more authentic selves In this remarkable panoramic work David Peterson del Mar explores the ways in which American fantasies of Africa have evolved over time as well as the role of Africans themselves in subverting American attitudes to their continent Spanning seven decades from the post war period to the present day and encompassing sources ranging from literature film and music to accounts by missionaries aid workers and travel writers African American is a fascinating deconstruction of Africa as it exists in the American mindset Media and Identity in Africa John

Middleton,Kimani Njogu,2010-01-04 What is the role of the media in Africa How do they work How do they interact with global media How do they reflect and express local culture Incorporating both African and international perspectives Media and Identity in Africa demonstrates how media outlets are used to perpetuate question or modify the unequal power relations between Africa and the rest of the world Discussions about the construction of old and new social entities which are defined by class gender ethnicity political and economic differences wealth poverty cultural behavior language and religion dominate these new assessments of communications media in Africa This volume addresses the tensions between the global and the local that have inspired creative control and use of traditional and modern forms of media Africa after Modernism

Michael Janis,2013-05-13 Africa after Modernism traces shifts in perspectives on African culture arts and philosophy from the conflict with European modernist interventions in the climate of colonialist aggression to present identitarian positions in the climate of globalism multiculturalism and mass media By focusing on what may be called deconstructive moments in twentieth century Africanist thought on intellectual landmarks revolutionary ideas crises of consciousness literary and philosophical debates this study looks at African modernity and modernism from critical postcolonial perspectives An effort to sketch contemporary frameworks of global intersubjective relations reflecting African cultures and concerns must resist taking modernism as a term of African periodization or master narrative but as a constellation of discursive and subjective forms that obtains upon the present moment in African literature philosophy and cultural history Africa after Modernism argues for a philosophical consciousness and pan African multiculturalist ethos that operate after the deconstruction of Eurocentrism beyond self other paradigms of exoticism or West Africa political ideologies in dialogue with postcolonial approaches to cultural reciprocity The Oxford Handbook of International Criminal Law Darryl Robinson,2020-02-24 In the past twenty years international criminal law has become one of the main areas of international legal scholarship and practice Most textbooks in the field describe the evolution of international criminal tribunals the elements of the core international crimes the applicable modes of liability and defences and the role of states in prosecuting international crimes The Oxford Handbook of International Criminal Law however takes a theoretically informed and refreshingly critical look at the most controversial issues in international criminal law challenging prevailing practices orthodoxies and received wisdoms Some of the contributions to the Handbook come from scholars within the field but many come from outside of international criminal law or indeed from outside law itself The chapters are grounded in history geography philosophy and international relations The result is a Handbook that expands the discipline and should fundamentally alter how international criminal law is understood The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng,2021-04-26

The public lynching of George Floyd re exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory Between Two Worlds Celucien L. Joseph,Jean Eddy Saint Paul,Glodel Mezilas,2018-02-07 Between Two Worlds Jean Price Mars Haiti and Africa is a special volume on Jean Price Mars that reassesses the importance of his thought and legacy and the implications of his ideas in the twenty first century s culture of political correctness the continuing challenge of race and racism and imperial hegemony in the modern world Price Mars s thought is also significant for the renewed scholarly interests in Haiti and Haitian Studies in North America and the meaning of contemporary Africa in the world today This volume explores various dimensions in Price Mars thought and his role as historian anthropologist cultural critic public intellectual religious scholar pan Africanist and humanist The goal of this book is fourfold it explores the contributions of Jean Price Mars to Haitian history and culture it studies Price Mars engagement with Western history and the problem of the racist narrative it interprets Price Mars connections with Black Internationalism Harlem Renaissance and the Negritude Movement and finally the book underscores Price Mars contributions to post colonialism religious studies Africana Studies and Pan Africanism Necessary Noise Chérie Rivers Ndaliko,2016 Written by a scholar and activist in the center of the current public policy debate in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Necessary Noise presents a compelling view on the uneasy balance of accomplishing change through art against the unsteady background of war Saving the Children Emily Baughan,2021-11-23 Saving the Children analyzes the intersection of liberal internationalism and imperialism through the history of the humanitarian organization Save the Children from its formation during the First World War through the era of decolonization Whereas Save the Children claimed that it was saving children to save the world the vision of the world it sought to save was strictly delimited characterized by international capitalism and colonial rule Emily Baughan s groundbreaking analysis across fifty years and eighteen countries shows that Britain s desire to create an international order favorable to its imperial rule shaped international humanitarianism In revealing that modern humanitarianism and its conception of childhood are products of the early twentieth century imperial economy Saving the Children argues that the contemporary aid sector must reckon with its past if it is to forge a new future The Making of the Africa-nation Mammo Muchie,2003 Introduction 2 Conceptual and theoretical issues 3 Africa nation Pan Africanism and the African renaissance issues challenges and prospects 4 Afro Arab relations co operation or conflict 5 Africa nation Pan Africanism and the African renaissance alternative guideposts 6 General conclusions A list of the contributions is available in the full text area of this record The Hearts of Darkness Milton Allimadi,2020-04 The book traces the historical demonization of Africa Africans and people of African ancestry in Western literature books newspapers and magazines from the 18th century to the 21st century Invisible Jim Crow Michael Tillotson,2011 With a title referring to the notorious Jim Crow laws that segregated black and white people in the US in the first half of the 20th century Invisible Jim Crow lays bare the harsh facts of how despite the first black President very similar forces are still at work in the US today Neo liberal ideas radical far right ideology and postmodernism combine to alter the social and political landscape of African Americans and not for the better Extra! ,2003
