Stirling provides another fabulous postapocalyptic thriller to his Change saga. Alternative Worlds Rudi Mackenzie traveled to Nantucket where he found and took up the Sword of the Lady and with it his destiny. His return journey to the area known as Montival in the Pacific Northwest is a treacherous one since he and his companions must cross three thousand miles making both allies and adversaries along the way. When he reaches his destination, he will face the legions of the Prophet. To achieve victory, Rudi must assemble a coalition of those who were his enemies just months before, then forge them into an army that will rescue his homeland and tear the heart out of the Church Universal and Triumphant once and for all. Only then will Rudi be able to come to terms with how the Sword has changed him as well as the world and assume his place as Artos, High King of Montival. Walking the High Desert Ellen Waterston, 2020-06-22 Former high desert rancher Ellen Waterston writes of a wild, essentially roadless, starkly beautiful part of the American West. Following the recently created 750-mile Oregon Desert Trail, she embarks on a creative and inquisitive exploration, introducing readers to a trusting, naïve, earnest, stubbly, grumpy old man of a desert that is grappling with issues at the forefront of national, if not global, concern: public land use, grazing rights for livestock, protection of sacred Indigenous ground water rights, and protection of habitat for endangered species. Blending travel writing with memoir and history, Waterston profiles a wide range of people who call the high desert home and offers fresh perspectives on nationally reported regional conflicts such as the Malheur Wildlife Refuge occupation. Walking the High Desert invites readers wherever they may be to consider their own beliefs, identities, and surroundings through the optic of the high desert of southeastern Oregon. Avatar: The High Ground Omnibus James Cameron, Sherri L.
