The Animal Things We Say:

The Animal's Defender and Zoophilist ,1919      Reading the Animal Text in the Landscape of the Damned

Mitchell, Les,2019-10-22 Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned looks at the diverse texts of our everyday world relating to nonhuman animals and examines the meanings we imbibe from them It describes ways in which we can explore such artefacts especially from the perspective of groups and individuals with little or no power This work understands the oppression of nonhuman animals as being part of a spectrum incorporating sexism racism xenophobia economic exploitation and other forms of oppression The enquiry includes physical landscapes the law women s rights history slavery language use economic coercion farming animal experimentation and much more Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned is an academic work but is accessible theoretically based but robustly practical and it encourages the reader to take this enquiry further for both themselves and for others      Essays on the Intellectual Powers of Man

ON THE FUTURE OF PERSPECTIVES When Patrick Bateson and Peter Klopfer offered me the editorship of Perspectives in 1992 the world of academic publishing was in one of its periodic upheavals Subscriptions to series even distinguished series such as Perspec tives had been declining and individual volume prices had been rising a trend that if continued could only result in the series pricing itself out of the market In the course of the negotiations around the change of editors the publishers offered a cost cutting solution change the production pattern to camera ready and elimi nate the costs of indexing and proofreading While I could see the sense in this proposal I was reluctant to accept it Part of what I had always liked about the volumes in this series was that they were real books intelligently proofread nicely laid out and provided with proper indexes Thus I in return offered a Devil s bargain the publisher should maintain the present quality of the series for two more volumes and make a renewed effort to advertise the series to our ethological and sociobiological colleagues while I as the new series editor committed myself to a renewed effort to make Perspectives the publication of choice for writers who are trying to get their message out to the world intact and readers who are seeking clear coherent comprehensive and untrammelled presentations of authors ideas and research programs      *The Works of W. Erica Fudge,2002 FOCI is a series that focuses on the contemporary issues pressing problems ideas and debates of the new millennium Animal provides an overview of the way humans interact exploit and live with animals on a daily basis      God and Evil Herbert McCabe,2010-02-26 Herbert McCabe was one of the most original and creative theologians of recent years Continuum has published numerous volumes of unpublished typescripts left behind by him following his untimely death in 2001 This book is the sixth to appear McCabe was deeply immersed in the philosophical theology of St Thomas Aquinas and was responsible in part for the notable revival of interest in the thought of Aquinas in our time Here he tackles the problem of evil by focusing and commenting on what Aquinas said about it What should we mean by words such as good bad being cause creation and God These are McCabe s main questions In seeking to answer them he demonstrates why it cannot be shown that evil disproves God s existence He also explains how we can rightly think of evil in a world made by God McCabe s approach to God and evil is refreshingly unconventional given much that has been said about it of late Yet it is also very traditional It will interest and inform anyone seriously interested in the topic Fraser's Magazine ,1873 The Pulpit Commentary. Leviticus Frederick Meyrick,2025-08-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy Burt Hopkins,John Drummond,2015-03-24 The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy provides an annual international forum for phenomenological research in the spirit of Husserl s groundbreaking work and the extension of this work by such figures as Scheler Heidegger Sartre Levinas Merleau Ponty and Gadamer The Crisis of Meaning and the Life-World Lubica Učník,2016-12-15 In The Crisis of Meaning and the Life World ubica U n k examines the existential conflict that formed the focus of Edmund Husserl s final work which she argues is very much with us today how to reconcile scientific rationality with the meaning of human existence To investigate this conundrum she places Husserl in dialogue with three of his most important successors Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt and Jan Pato ka For Husserl 1930s Europe was characterized by a growing irrationalism that threatened to undermine its legacy of rational inquiry Technological advancement in the sciences Husserl argued had led science to forget its own foundations in the primary life world the world of lived experience Renewing Husserl s concerns in today s context U n k first provides an original and compelling reading of his oeuvre through the lens of the formalization of the sciences then traces the unfolding of this problem through the work of Heidegger Arendt and Pato ka Although many scholars have written on Arendt none until now has connected her philosophical thought with that of Czech phenomenologist Jan Pato ka U n k provides invaluable access to the work of the latter who remains understudied in the English language She shows that together these four thinkers offer new challenges to the way we approach key issues confronting us today providing us with ways to reconsider truth freedom and human responsibility in the face of the postmodern critique of metanarratives and a growing philosophical interest in new forms of materialism The Greatest Books of Spiritual Wisdom Martin Luther,John Stuart Mill,David Hume,James Allen,Ralph Waldo Emerson,Andrew Murray,Thomas Paine,Ludwig Feuerbach,G.
