The Antiaesthetic Essays On Postmodern Culture:

The Anti-aesthetic Hal Foster, 1983 The Anti-aesthetic Hal Foster, 1983 The touchstone volume for postmodern debate and theory The Anti-aesthetic Hal Foster, 1985 The anti-aesthetic Hal Foster, 1984 The Idea of the Postmodern Johannes Willem Bertens, 1995 On Postmodernism Parody Margaret A. Rose, 1993-09-09 In this definitive work Margaret Rose presents an analysis and history of theories and uses of parody from ancient to contemporary times and offers a new approach to the analysis and classification of modern late modern and post modern theories of the subject The author's Parody Meta Fiction 1979 was influential in broadening awareness of parody as a double coded device which could be used for more than mere ridicule In the present study she both expands and revises the introductory section of her 1979 text and adds substantial new sections on modern and post modern theories and uses of parody and pastiche which also discuss the work of theorists and writers including the Russian formalists Mikhail Bakhtin Hans Robert Jauss Wolfgang Iser Julia Kristeva Roland Barthes Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Ihab Hassan Jean Baudrillard Fredric Jameson A S Byatt Martin Amis Charles Jencks Umberto Eco David Lodge Malcolm Bradbury and others Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti-Aesthetic James Elkins, Harper Montgomery, 2015-06-26 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series and the seminars on which they are based brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fourth volume in the series Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti Aesthetic focuses on questions revolving around the concepts of the aesthetic the anti aesthetic and the political The book is about the fact that now almost thirty years after Hal Foster defined the anti aesthetic there is still no viable alternative to the dichotomy between aesthetics and anti or nonaesthetic art The impasse is made more difficult by the proliferation of identity politics and it is made less negotiable by the hegemony of anti aesthetics in academic discourse on art The central question of this book is whether artists and academicians are free of this choice in practice in pedagogy and in theory The contributors are Stephanie Benzaquen J M Bernstein Karen Busk Jepsen Luis Camnitzer Diarmuid Costello Joana Cunha Leal Angela Dimitrakaki Alexander Dumbadze T Brandon Evans Geng Youzhuang Boris Groys Be ta Hock Gordon Hughes Michael Kelly Grant Kester Meredith Kooi Cary Levine Sunil Manghani William Mazzarella Justin McKeown Andrew McNamara Eve Meltzer Nadja Millner Larsen Maria Filomena Molder Carrie Noland Gary Peters Aaron Richmond Lauren Ross Toni Ross Eva Sch rmann Gregory Sholette Noah Simblist Jon Simons Robert Storr Martin Sundberg Timotheus Vermeulen and Rebecca Zorach

Landscapes of Postmodernity Petra Eckhard, Michael Fuchs, Walter W. Holbling, 2010 In Landscapes of Postmodernity a group of young scholars link key concepts of postmodern thought to our present everyday experience in which we change our identities on a regular basis While many of the essays look at less conventional modes of aesthetic representation computer games graphic novels telenovelas queer and animated films others analyze more canonical works following less conventional approaches Either way the cultural and literary cartographies presented in this book allow America to be conceived as polymorphous or transnational celebrating a new American self that is aware and proud of its non Anglo Saxon origins

Peter Greenaway's Postmodern / Poststructuralist Cinema Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, Mary Alemany-Galway, 2008-07-17 Since the 1960s British multi media artist Peter Greenaway has shocked and intrigued audiences with his avant garde approach to filmmaking and other artistic ventures From early experimental films to provocative features Greenaway has deployed strategies associated with structuralist cinema only to challenge or critique the very limits of that cinema and of film in general In this collection of essays scholars from a variety of disciplines explore various postmodern and poststructuralist aspects of Greenaway's films starting with his early shorts and delving into his feature length works including The Draughtman's Contract The Belly of an Architect A Zed and Two Noughts The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover The Baby of Micon and The Pillow Book Other artistic productions including his paintings and installations are also discussed These essays examine the filmmaker's position within British and avant garde cinema and his interest in constructing and deconstructing representational systems In the years since the first edition of this book Greenaway has enjoyed continued success in creating hybridized media projects for the stage and screen as evidenced by additional essays for this revised edition A new chapter addresses how Dutch political events and Dutch art have been crucial in shaping Greenaway's aesthetic focusing on The Draughtsman's Contract the 1991 opera Writing to Vermeer and Nightwatching the audio visual installation and 2007 film of the same name which were inspired by Rembrandt's Night Watch Also new to this collection is an essay that examines Greenaway's most ambitious endeavor to date The Tulse Luper Suitcases which exists as four feature films multiple websites an online game several books and installations and a number of theatrical events Peter Greenaway's Postmodern Poststructuralist Cinema Revised Edition explores the cultural historical and philosophical implication recently undergone a spectacular reorientation that has refocused entire fields methodologies and vocabularies on the world and its sister terms such as globe planet and earth The Bloomsbury Handbook of World Theory examines what world means and what it accomplishes in different zones of academic study The contributors raise questions such as What happens when world is appended to a particular form of humanistic or scientific inquiry How exactly does worlding bear on the theoretical operating system and the history of that field What is the theory or theoretical model that allows world to function in a meaningful way in coordination with that knowledge domain With contributions from 38 leading theorists from a vast range of fields including queer studies religion and pop culture this is the first large reference work to consider the profound effect both within and outside the academy of the worlding of discourse in the 21st century Art vs. TV Francesco

Spampinato,2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange Postcolonial Comics Binita

Duncan,2014-01-10 Reflecting the revival of interest in a social theory that takes place and space seriously this book focuses on geographical place in the practice of social science and history There is significant interest among scholars from a range of disciplines in bringing together the geographical and sociological imaginations The geographical imagination is a concrete and descriptive one concerned with determining the nature of places and classifying them and the links between them The sociological imagination aspires to explanation of human activities in terms of abstract social processes The chapters in this book focus on both the intellectual histories of the concept of place and on its empirical uses They show that place is as important for understanding contemporary America as it is for 18th century Sri Lanka They also show how the concept can provide insight into old problems such as the nature of social life in Renaissance Florence and Venice The editors are leading exponents of the view of place as a concept that can mediate the geographical and sociological imaginations The Routledge Companion to Social Theory Anthony Elliott, 2009-12-04 A collection of introductory essays by an international range of contributors giving an insightful overview of classical and contemporary social theory An Introduction to

Information Society Karamjit S. Gill, 2012-12-06 Human centredness A Challenge to Post industrial Europe The key power in industrial society has been linked to the possession of capital and factory In the information society it could be rather different If one accepts that the key power in the information society will be linked not so much to the ownership of information but to human creativity nourished by that information the productive force of today and tomorrow could be more and more the human brain Making use of one's intelligence is always accompanied by positive emotion which in turn further activates the intelligence But unfortunately under present conditions workers of all levels live in fear anxiety and stress rather than desire and motivation The question of basic human ecology quality of life is therefore a major strategic factor It is precisely the opposite to the mechanisms of exclusion that currently dominate our society exclusion of young people through joblessness but also exclusion through technology as with the helplessness of older people or the poorly educated confronted with ticket dispensing machines or other automats This is not idle theorizing it corresponds to concrete facts It is for example how some observers interpret the crisis at IBM Because its programs were less human friendly it was shaken to its foundations by Apple and Microsoft though it seems since to have learnt its lesson The Film Cultures Reader Graeme Turner, 2002 This companion reader to Film as Social Practice brings together key writings on contemporary cinema
