The Apocalypse Eugenio Corsini,2019-05-02 From the Introduction The work that follows is not intended to be a commentary on the Apocalypse There have been many such commentaries reaching back into the earliest times of the Christian era Some especially during the Middle Ages have been quite spectacular in their ingeniousness Our modern era has seen a series of fine commentaries applying all the criteria of a historical philological analysis to this difficult book What I have attempted to do here is to provide a continuous reading of the text trying to show especially through the links which can be made with the Old Testament tradition the coherent and unified argument of the whole work The reader will find that despite my admiration for and debt to the older commentaries I have introduced something quite new to the interpretation of the Apocalypse

An Introduction to Reading the Apocalypse

Columba Graham Flegg,Graham Flegg,1999

The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation Msgr. A. Robert Nusca,2018-06-30 That the Apocalypse of John is a Revelation of Jesus Christ Rev 1 1 is a fact too often overlooked by interpreters of this last book of the Bible As Msgr A Robert Nusca's The Christ of the Apocalypse Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation proposes beyond predictions of earthquakes and falling stars St

John articulates from start to finish a multifaceted and compelling portrait of Jesus Christ Nusca offers an exegetical reading of selected verses of the Book of Revelation incorporating rich spiritual and pastoral reflections The Christ of the Apocalypse above all affirms that St John's God and Christ centered symbolic universe offers our contemporary world a spiritual place to stand amid the shifting sands of postmodernity As Cardinal Thomas Collins Archbishop of Toronto writes in his Foreword Now as in the first century Christians face martyrdom and those who are not called to die for Christ are called to live for Christ in a world which in many ways rejects the Gospel More than ever we need the apocalyptic vision to have our own vision of reality clarified and to be strengthened in our evangelical witness
