The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair,Jonathan M. Bloom,1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles The Art of Islam Nurhan Atasoy,Afif Bahnassi,Michael Rogers,1990 Copublished by UNESCO combines a geographical and a chronological survey of Islamic art Surveys the architecture from Iran to China the Maghreb to India and traces artistic styles from the Umayyad and early Abbasid dynasties 650 750 A D to the Ottoman and Mughal empires of the 18th and 19th c Muslim Religious Architecture, 2. Development of Religious Architecture in Later Periods D. Kuban,2023-09-20 Scholarly monographs on the religious iconography of Islam Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami,2013-12-20 What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition s preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art It addresses a central question in post classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature philosophy poetry medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice politics cosmology and desire In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within opposing Islamic political and social projects throughout the world Architecture of the Islamic West Jonathan M. Bloom,2020-06-30 An authoritative survey situating some of the Western world s most renowned buildings within a millennium of Islamic history Some of the most outstanding examples of world architecture such as the Mosque of C rdoba the ceiling of the Cappella Palatina in Palermo the Giralda tower in Seville and the Alhambra Palace in Granada belong to the Western Islamic tradition This architectural style flourished for over a thousand years along the southern and western shores of the Mediterranean between Tunisia and Spain from the 8th century through the 19th blending new ideas with local building practices from across the region Jonathan M Bloom s Architecture of the Islamic West introduces readers to the full scope of this vibrant tradition presenting both famous and little known buildings in six countries in North Africa and southern Europe It is richly illustrated with photographs specially commissioned architectural plans and historical documents The result is a personally guided tour of Islamic architecture led by one of the finest scholars in the field and a powerful testament to Muslim cultural achievement Synagogues in the Islamic World Mohammad Gharipour,2019-07-30 This beautifully illustrated volume looks at the spaces created by and for Jews in areas under the political or religious control of Muslims Covering regions as diverse as Central Asia the Middle East North Africa and Spain it asks how the architecture of synagogues responded to contextual issues and traditions and how these contexts influenced the design and evolution of synagogues As well as revealing how synagogues reflect the culture of the Jewish minority at macro and micro scales from the city to the interior the book also considers patterns of the development of synagogues in urban contexts and in connection with urban elements and monuments Islamic Art and Architecture Robert Hillenbrand,2024-10-17 Embracing over a thousand years of history and an area stretching from the Atlantic to the borders of India and China this is an unrivalled synthesis of the arts of Islamic civilization From the death of the Prophet Muhammad to the present day Robert Hillenbrand traces the evolution of an extraordinary range of art forms including architecture calligraphy book illumination painting ceramics glassware textiles and metalwork New to this edition is a chapter ranging from c 1700 to c 1900 a period very often neglected in books on this subject Hillenbrand explores how recent centuries far from being a dark age have seen incredible artistic ferment and creativity across the Islamic world Full colour illustrations of masterpieces of Islamic art and architecture from Moorish Spain to contemporary Iran show the far reaching stylistic developments as well as the recurrent preoccupations that have shaped the arts of Islam since the seventh century With 227 illustrations in colour Islamic Buildings Dazhang Sun,Yulan Qiu,2015 Islamic Buildings is a richly illustrated volume that traces the spread of Islam in China and Islam s influence on ancient Chinese architecture The introduction of Islamic architecture into China resulted in a unique blending of Chinese and Arab architecture Islam spread quickly in China with followers constructing a variety of religious buildings including scripture halls halls of prayer and mausoleums Tragically few ancient Chinese mosques have survived to the present The best examples of Chinese mosques are presented here with 125 color photographs and 20 illustrations and figures documenting the spectacular interiors and exteriors of mosques that are still standing in China today Splendors of Islam Dominique Clevenot,2000 Since human representation is forbidden in Islamic religious monuments design ornamentation reach unparalleled heights in Islamic tiles mosaics stucco brickwork ceramics enhanced by brilliant color The author is a distinguished scholar of Islamic art a professor at the University of Toulouse Studies in Medieval Islamic Architecture Robert Hillenbrand,2001 This is the first of two volumes to consider in detail the architecture of Islam from Spain to India from the 7th century to the present day Hillenbrand s particular interests are Iranian buildings from the Saljuq period 11th to 12th centuries and the Umayyad monuments in the Levant 660 750 AD This volume considers the architecture of Cordoba in Spain Syria Pakistan and Britain and America and includes Islamic and Oriental art The second volume predominantly concerned with Iran will be published in the autumn of 2001 Islamic Architecture in Iran Saeid Khaghani,2012-07-30 The architecture of the Islamic world is predominantly considered in terms of a dual division between tradition and modernity a division which Saeid Khaghani here argues has shaped and limited the narrative applied to this architecture Khaghani introduces and reconsiders the mosques of eighth to fifteenth century Iran in terms of poststructural theory and developments in historiography in order to develop a brand new dialectical framework Using the examples of mosques such as the Friday Mosques in Isfahan and Yazd as well as the Imam mosque in Isfahan Khaghani presents a new way of thinking about and discussing Islamic architecture making this valuable reading for all interested in the study of the art architecture and material culture of the Islamic world The Religious Architecture of Islam Hasan-Uddin Khan,Kathryn Blair Moore,2022-08-31 The Religious Architecture of Islam is a wide ranging multi author study of the architectural traditions associated with the religion of Islam across the globe A total of 59 essays by 48 authors are presented across two volumes Volume 1 Asia and Australia and Volume 2 Africa Europe and the Americas Essays address major themes across historical and contemporary periods of Islam and provide more focused studies of developments unique to specific regions and historical periods The essays cover Islamic religious architecture broadly defined including mosques madrasas saints shrines and funerary architecture The Religious Architecture of Islam both provides an introduction to the history of Islamic architecture and reflects the most recent scholarship within the field Rabat des jaquettes Islam: Early architecture from Baghdad to Cordoba Henri Stierlin,1996 This volume is an impressive survey of more than 600 years of Islamic architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries in a region stretching from the Near and Middle East to Sicily the Maghreb and Andalusia It presents masterpieces of Islamic architecture from the peerless Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem to the mysterious Umayyad palaces in the deserts of Syria and Palestine from the sumptuous residences of the caliphs in Samarra and Saragossa to the Great Mosques of Damascus Kairouan and Cordoba Architecture of Anxiety, Body Politics and the Formation of Islamic Architecture Heba Mostafa,2024-03-04 Structured as five microhistories c 632 705 this book offers a counternarrative for the formation of Islamic architecture and the Islamic state It adopts a novel periodization informed by moments of historical violence and anxiety around caliphal identities in flux animating histories of the minbar throne and maqsura as a principal nexus for navigating this anxiety It expands outward to re assess the mosque and palace with a focus on the Qubbat al Khadra and the Dar al Imara in Kufa It culminates in a reading of the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem as a site where eschatological anxieties and political survival converge Islamic Architecture through Western Eyes: Spain, Turkey, India and Persia Michael Greenhalgh,2022-11-28 This book the first of three offers an anthology of Western descriptions of Islamic religious buildings of Spain Turkey India and Persia mostly from the seventeenth to early twentieth centuries taken from books and ambassadorial reports As travel became easier and cheaper thanks to viable roads steamships hotels and railways tourist numbers increased museums accumulated eastern treasures illustrated journals proliferated and photography provided accurate data The second volume covers some of the religious architecture of Syria Egypt and North Africa while the third deals with Islamic palaces around the Mediterranean All three deal with the impact of Western trade taste and imports on the East and examine the encroachment of westernised modernism judged responsible for the degradation of Islamic styles Architecture of the Islamic World Ernst J.
