Stone,2006 These volumes comprise a collection of papers by Michael E Stone written over a period of 35 years Stone is a leading scholar in two different fields of research the Jewish literature of the Second Temple period including the Dead Sea Scrolls and Armenian Studies So this collection includes essays relating to the origins and nature of the Apocryphal literature and its relationship with the Dead Sea Scrolls as well as more specific studies devoted to themes that have interested Stone throughout his career including Messianism 4 Ezra Adam and Eve and Aramaic Levi Document His Armenian interests have embraced the Armenian Biblical text Armenian pilgrimage to and presence in the Holy Land and Armenian paleography and epigraphy Papers included in the volumes some of which were originally published in obscure venues touch on all these themes A number of previously unpublished papers are included

"Translation is Required" Robert James Victor Hiebert,2010 Proceedings of a conference held Sept 18 20 2008 at Trinity Western University The Text of the Old Testament Ernst Würthwein,1995 This classic introduction to textual criticism of the Hebrew Bible is now entirely updated The book examines the transmission of the biblical text in its original language the history of its translation the causes of corruption in the textual tradition and the proper principles and techniques of textual criticism Armenian Deuteronomy Claude Cox,2025-05-12 This edition of Armenian Deuteronomy represents one of a handful of critical editions of books of the Bible in Armenian It reconstructs the underlying Greek text from the critical edition by Joseph Ziegler and offers an English translation of the Armenian The Life of Mashtots' by His Disciple Koriwn Koriun,2022 Translated from the latest Armenian edition of the text 2003 this is a scholarly edition with an introduction facing page English translation and commentary The Life of the Mashtots praises for the inventor of the Armenian alphabet and progenitor of Armenian literacy that began with the translation of the Bible A Student's Guide to Textual Criticism of the Bible Paul D. Wegner,2006-03-09 In plain language and with ample illustration Paul D Wegner presents an overview of the history and methods aims and results of textual criticism of the whole Bible the Hebrew Old Testament and the Greek New Testament You will gain an appreciation for the vast work that has been accomplished in preserving the text of Scripture and find a renewed confidence in its reliability Selected Studies in Pseudepigrapha and Apocrypha with Special Reference to the Armenian Tradition Michael Stone,2024-03-11 This work contains selected essays dealing with the Jewish Literature of the Second Temple period focusing around central themes of recent research Stone s varied interests are reflected in this book gathered around four main themes Under the title Enoch and the Testaments are assembled studies which present and draw the implications from recent discoveries including the Dead Sea Scrolls as they modify the view of these two pivotal documents of ancient Judaism Another focus of Stone s work has been 4

Ezra or 2 Esdras a work reflecting the situation of Judaism and especially to the understanding of apocalypticism form a third section of the present work while the particular development of apocryphal literature in Armenian is its fourth division This work presents a range of significant studies in areas standing at the forefront of the study of Ancient Judaism A Syrian in Greek Dress R. B. ter Haar Romeny, 1997 The identification and publication of an ancient Armenian translation of Eusebius of Emesa's Commentary on Genesis 1980 and the edition of fragments of his work in the Greek Catena in Genesim have opened new perspectives for the study of this fourth century scholar and bishop of Syrian descent This book now brings together the evidence of the various branches of tradition of this work the oldest complete Antiochene commentary to survive The author concentrates on one of the most striking characteristics of Eusebius commentary its interest in translation problems and appeal to alternative readings Apart from the Septuagint the version commented on Eusebius quotes the Syrian ho Syros and the Hebrew ho Hebraios It has long been unclear what or who answered to these names The author proposes a new solution to this problem The first part of this study deals with the content and affiliations of all biblical quotations in the Commentary and with their place in Eusebius method of exegesis The author demonstrates that Eusebius referred to the Hebrew and Syriac texts in their original languages He had direct access to the Syriac text and is thus one of the oldest witnesses to the Peshitta version but used informants for his knowledge of the Hebrew text His approach in assessing the value of the different versions of the biblical text is contrasted with that of his predecessors Origen and Eusebius of Caesarea his contemporary Jerome and later Antiochene exegetes who followed or criticized him The second part gives the basis of the first it is a collection of all passages that cite alternative readings All texts are given in their original languages and in English translation A commentary deals with the textual tradition of each passage identifies the questions Eusebius wanted to solve by the use of alternative readings contrasts his handling of the text with that of others establishes his sources and studies the biblical quotations in detail La Septuaginta en la Investigación Contemporánea International Organization for Septuagint and Cognate Studies. Congress, Natalio Fernández Marcos, 1985 XV Congress of the International Organization for Septuagint and Cognate Studies Wolfgang Kraus, Michaël N. van der Meer, Martin Meiser, 2016-08-26 Essays from experts in the field of Septuagint studies The study of Septuagint offers essential insights in ancient Judaism and its efforts to formulate Jewish identity within a non Jewish surrounding culture This book includes the papers given at the XV Congress of the International Organization for Septuagint and Cognate Studies IOSCS held in Munich Germany in 2013 The first part of this book deals with questions of textual criticism The second part is dedicated to philology The third part underlines the increasing importance of Torah in Jewish self definition Features Essays dealing with questions of textual criticism mostly concerning the historical books and wisdom literature and ancient editions and translations Philological essays covering the historical background studies on translation technique and lexical studies underline the necessity of both exploring general perspectives and working in detail The Text of the New Testament in Contemporary Research Bart Ehrman, Michael W. Holmes, 2001-08-22 Compiled in honor of Bruce M Metzger the most highly respected American textual critic in the history of the discipline this volume comprises twenty two full length essays on every major issue relating to New Testament textual criticism each written by an internationally recognized scholar in the field

Armenian Philology in the Modern Era, 2014-06-05 Philology is one of the most investigated fields of Armenian studies At the end of the twentieth century it was important to provide an overview of the main achievements and on the methodological approaches implemented in this field till now This is the aim of the present publication Part I focuses on the manuscripts the inscriptions and the printings Its second section is devoted to the textual criticisms and the third section explores the interface between linguistics and philology Case studies form the core of Part II One chapter offers an overview on the 17th 19th centuries and two articles are devoted to the conditions of the circulation of the literary production in the 20th century both in Western and Eastern Armenian
