The Dobama Movement In Burma 1930 1938:

The Dobama Movement in Burma (1930-1938) Khin Yi, 2018-05-31 This account focuses on the Dobama Movement the radical group led by Burmese intellectuals who struggled for their country's unity and independence Khin Yi focuses on the years 1930 to 1938 and recounts the movement's founding by Thakin Ba Thung its phenomenal growth and its sudden division in 1938 known as The Year of Strife Though ultimately unsuccessful the Dobama Movement produced such leaders as the father of Burmese independence Aung San The Dobama movement in Burma Khin Yi, 1988 Buddhist-Muslim Relations in a Theravada World Iselin Frydenlund, Michael Jerryson, 2020-02-28 This book is the first to critically analyze Buddhist Muslim relations in Theravada Buddhist majority states in South and Southeast Asia Asia is home to the largest population of Buddhists and Muslims In recent years this interfaith communal living has incurred conflicts such as the ethnic religious conflicts in Myanmar Sri Lanka and Thailand Experts from around the world collaborate to provide a comprehensive look into religious pluralism and religious violence The book is divided into two sections The first section provides historical background to the three countries with the largest Buddhist Muslim relations The second section has chapters that focus on specific encounters between Buddhists and Muslims which includes anti Buddhist sentiments in Bangladesh the role of gender in Muslim Buddhist relations and the rise of anti Muslim and anti Rohingya sentiments in Myanmar By exploring historical fluctuations over time paying particular attention to how state formations condition Muslim Buddhist entanglements the book shows the processual and relational aspects of religious identity constructions and Buddhist Muslim interactions in Theravada Buddhist majority states The Burmese Labyrinth Carlos Sardiña Galache, 2020-03-10 In 2011 Myanmar embarked in a democratic transition from a brutal military rule that culminated four years later when the first free election in decades saw a landslide for the party of celebrated Nobel Prize winner Aung San Suu Kyi Yet even as the international community was celebrating a new dawn old wars were raging in the northern borderlands A crisis was emerging in western Arakan state where the regime intensified its oppression of the vulnerable Muslim Rohingya community By 2017 the conflict had escalated into a military onslaught against the Rohingya that provoked the most desperate refugee crisis of our times as over 750 000 of them fled their homes to neighbouring Bangladesh In The Burmese Labyrinth journalist Carlos Sardiña Galache gives the in depth story of the country Burma has always been an uneasy balance between multiple ethnic groups and religions He examines the deep roots behind the ethnic divisions that go back prior to the colonial period and so shockingly exploded in recent times This is a powerful portrait of a nation in perpetual conflict with itself Feasting and Social Oscillation A. Thomas Kirsch, 2018-05-31 This work argues that anthropologists have observed and recorded religious rites and rituals but have largely ignored the role of religion when constructing an analytical framework The author contends that religious phenomena are inextricably intertwined with issues of power politics and economics among the upland groups such as the Kachin of Southeast Asia The Indonesian Supreme Court Sebastiaan Pompe, 2018-05-31 Since the fall of Indonesian president Suharto a major focus of the country's reformers has been the corrupt and inefficient judicial system Within the context of a history of the Supreme Court in post independence Indonesia Sebastiaan Pompe analyzes the causes of the judiciary's failure over the last five decades This study provides an essential background for those seeking to understand why legal reform has been so slow and frustrating in the post 1998 period Cultures at War Tony Day, Maya H. T. Liem, 2018-08-06 The Cold War in Southeast Asia was a many faceted conflict driven by regional historical imperatives as much as by the contest between global superpowers The essays in this book offer the most detailed and probing examination to date of the cultural dimension of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Southeast Asian culture from the late 1940s to the late 1970s was primarily shaped by a long standing search for national identity and independence which took place in the context of intense rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union with the Peoples Republic of China emerging in 1949 as another major international competitor for influence in Southeast Asia Based on fieldwork in Burma Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam the essays in this collection analyze the ways in which art literature film theater spectacle physical culture and the popular press represented Southeast Asian responses to the Cold War and commemorated that era's violent conflicts long after tensions had subsided Southeast Asian cultural reactions to the Cold War involved various solutions to the dilemmas of the newly independent nation states of the region What is common to all of the perspectives and works examined in this book is that they expressed social and aesthetic concerns that both antedated and outlasted the Cold War ones that never became simply aligned with the ideologies of either bloc Contributors Francisco B Benitez University of Washington Bo Bo Burmese writer SOAS University of London Michael Bodden University of Victoria Simon Creak Australian National University Gaik Cheng Khoo Australian National University Rachel Harrison SOAS University of London Barbara Hatley University of Tasmania Boitran Huynh Beattie Asiarta Foundation Jennifer Lindsay Australian National University The Political Legacy of Aung San Josef Silverstein, 2018-05-31 This work compiles selected speeches letters and statements by the father of Burmese independence Aung San The editor's introduction offers an overview of this remarkable man's life thought and achievements The documents included here provide insight into the politics of Aung San an eminently pragmatic leader focused on attaining both national unity and social harmony through his own words Dependent Communities Caroline Hughes, 2018-05-31 Dependent Communities investigates the political situations in contemporary Cambodia and East Timor where powerful international donors intervened following deadly civil conflicts This comparative analysis critiques international policies that focus on rebuilding state institutions to accommodate the global market In addition it explores the dilemmas of politicians in Cambodia and East Timor who struggle to satisfy both wealthy foreign benefactors and constituents at home groups whose interests frequently conflict Hughes argues that the policies of Western aid organizations tend to stifle active political engagement by the citizens of countries that have been torn apart by war The neoliberal ideology promulgated by United Nations administrations and other international NGOs advocates state sovereignty but in fact sovereignty is too flimsy a foundation for effective modern democratic politics. The result is an oppressive peace that tends to rob survivors and former resistance fighters of their agency and aspirations for genuine postwar independence. In her study of these two cases, Hughes demonstrates that the clientelist strategies of Hun Sen, Cambodia's postwar leader, have created a shadow network of elites and their followers that has been comparatively effective in serving the country's villages even though so often coercive and corrupt. East Timor's postwar leaders, on the other hand, have alienated voters by attempting to follow the guidelines of the donors closely and ignoring the immediate needs and voices of the people. Dependent Communities offers a searing analysis of contemporary international aid strategies based on the author's years of fieldwork in Cambodia and East Timor.

A Malay Frontier Jane Drakard, 2018-05-31 The way in which Malays construe ideas about authority and government is the subject of this book. Focusing upon an often ignored section of the Malay archipelago, Barus, a small kingdom on the coast of northwest Sumatra, the author compares readings based upon the royal chronicles of Hilir and Hulu Barus. She examines the relationship between the upland and the lowland to study the character of Malay political culture in Barus.
