Dreams Haden James, 2020-01-19 Snuff films are a myth Everyone knows that When a serial killer begins rampaging through Kansas City Missouri the press dubs him The Lady Burner because after he kills his victims he sets their bodies on fire and burns down their houses The SCTU knows that the fires are just a forensic counter measure He s covering his tracks he rapes and strangles these women while filming it He offers the videos up for sale on the dark web forcing Aislinn Cain and the SCTU to track a killer through the sleazy digital marketplaces where someone can buy anything if they have enough money However once inside the marketplaces Aislinn realizes it s not just a case of tracking down the person selling the videos There s an infrastructure in place that insulates the video maker the seller the distributor and the buyers Ensuring everything on the dark web even the makers of snuff films are anonymous The Search for Certainty W.W. Porterfield, 2012-12-06 Who are we What are we How do we fit into the world Or into the universe These and other questions pertaining to ourselves and our environment are as compelling to us today as they were to our primitive ancestors Throughout our history we have developed paradigms of thought that have attempted to answer these questions each conceptual framework being particularly relevant to its age We are in the twentieth century witnessing a complete reorganization of our thinking We are now with the aid of technology able to bring together both ancient and new patterns of thought and to observe the emergence of a kaleidoscopic world view that is uniting the once dissonant theories of philosophy religion and science This book sketches an historical picture of three world views that have shaped our ideas about ourselves These conceptual formats that have so influenced us are not mutually exclusive and are present in all of us simultaneously although to varying degrees depending upon our individual biases San Clemente Shoreline Protection Project, Orange County, 2011

The Dreaming Mind and the End of the Ming World Lynn A. Struve, 2021-05-31 From the mid sixteenth through the end of the seventeenth century Chinese intellectuals attended more to dreams and dreaming and in a wider array of genres than in any other period of Chinese history Taking the approach of cultural history this ambitious yet accessible work aims both to describe the most salient aspects of this dream arc and to explain its trajectory in time through the writings arts and practices of well known thinkers religionists litterateurs memoirists painters doctors and political figures of late Ming and early Qing times The volume's encompassing thesis asserts that certain associations of dreaming grounded in the neurophysiology of the human brain at sleep such as subjectivity irrationality the unbidden lack of control emotionality spontaneity the imaginal and memory when especially heightened by historical and cultural developments are likely to pique interest in dreaming and generate florescences of dream expression among intellectuals The work thus makes a contribution to the history of how people have understood human consciousness in various times and cultures The Dreaming Mind and the End of the Ming World is the most substantial work in any language on the historicity of Chinese dream culture Within Chinese studies it will appeal to those with backgrounds in literature religion philosophy political history and the visual arts It will also be welcomed by readers interested in comparative dream cultures the history of consciousness and neurohistory *Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
