The Haunting Image 22:

Haunting Images Tine Gammeltoft, 2014-02-22 Based on years of careful ethnographic fieldwork in Hanoi Haunting Images offers a frank and compassionate account of the moral quandaries that accompany innovations in biomedical technology At the center of the book are case studies of thirty pregnant women whose fetuses were labeled abnormal after an ultrasound examination By following these women and their relatives through painful processes of reproductive decision making Tine M Gammeltoft offers intimate ethnographic insights into everyday life in contemporary Vietnam and a sophisticated theoretical exploration of how subjectivities are forged in the face of moral assessments and demands Across the globe ultrasonography and other technologies for prenatal screening offer prospective parents new information and present them with agonizing decisions never faced in the past For anthropologists this diagnostic capability raises important questions about individuality and collectivity responsibility and choice Arguing for more sustained anthropological attention to human quests for belonging Haunting Images addresses existential questions of love and loss that concern us all

Radiology Anil Ghom, 2014 This new edition has been fully revised to bring dental students fully up to date with the latest advances in oral medicine Divided into five sections the book begins with an introduction to the basics followed by sections on Diseases of Oral Structures Systemic Diseases Manifested in the Jaw Drugs Used in Dentistry and Miscellaneous Topics A free book entitled Basic Oral Radiology is also included with this third edition About to Die Barbie Zelizer,2010-12-01 Images of people about to die surface repeatedly in the news particularly around the difficult and unsettled events of war political revolution terrorism natural disaster and other crises Their appearance raises questions What equips an image to deliver the news how much does the public need to know to make sense of what they see and what do these images contribute to historical memory About To Die addresses these questions by using images of imminent death as a litmus test for considering news imagery and visual meaning more broadly The Ghost in the Image Cecilia Sayad,2021 Our century has seen the proliferation of reality shows devoted to ghost hunts documentaries on hauntings and horror films presented as found footage The horror genre is no longer exclusive to fiction and its narratives actively engage us in web forums experiential viewing videogames and creepypasta These participative modes of relating to the occult alongside the impulse to seek proof of either its existence or fabrication have transformed the production and consumption of horror stories The Ghost in the Image offers a new take on the place that supernatural phenomena occupy in everyday life arguing that the relationship between the horror genre and reality is more intimate than we like to think Through a revisionist and transmedial approach to horror this book investigates our expectations about the ability of photography and film to work as evidence A historical examination of technology s role in at once showing and forging truths invites questions about our investment in its powers Behind our obsession with documenting everyday life lies the hope that our cameras will reveal something extraordinary The obsessive search for ghosts in the image however shows that the desire to find them is matched by the pleasure of calling a hoax Body Horror John Taylor,1998-09 What compels us to look at shocking photographs or alternatively to look away Should the media use disturbing images to inform at the risk of offending How is our sense of politics morality and culture affected when we are exposed to gruesome images of accidents and disasters murder and execution grief and death In Body Horror John Taylor addresses these questions by examining how the media presents unsettling pictures especially those of dead and injured foreigners Drawing on recent experiences in the Gulf Bosnia and Rwanda Taylor argues that documentary photography for all the horror it reproduces ultimately defines a democracy Fully aware of the voyeuristic aspects of photojournalism Taylor probes the difficulty of applying moral imperatives when separating the utility of showing images of suffering and violence from the risk of either insulting or gratifying public sensibilities A compelling documentary of photography s cultural and political power Body Horror analyzes the moral responsibility attached to publishing and bearing witness to photographs of violence and the historical amnesia that arises when such imagery remains unseen Haunted History of Alcatraz Island Tammy Gagne,2023-12-15 Alcatraz Island is known for its former prison Alcatraz Federal Penitentiary which housed many dangerous criminals The island is also known as one of the most haunted locations in the world This title explores the history of the island reports of unexplained activity at the former prison and ways in which paranormal investigators and scientists search for proof of hauntings Easy to read text vivid images and helpful back matter give readers a clear look at this subject Features include a table of contents infographics a glossary additional resources and an index Aligned to Common Core Standards and correlated to state standards Core Library is an imprint of Abdo Publishing a division of ABDO

Haunted Visions Charles Colbert,2011-05-10 Spiritualism emerged in western New York in 1848 and soon achieved a wide following due to its claim that the living could commune with the dead In Haunted Visions Spiritualism and American Art Charles Colbert focuses on the ways Spiritualism imbued the making and viewing of art with religious meaning and in doing so draws fascinating connections between art and faith in the Victorian age Examining the work of such well known American artists as James Abbott McNeill Whistler William Sydney Mount and Robert Henri Colbert demonstrates that Spiritualism played a critical role in the evolution of modern attitudes toward creativity He argues that Spiritualism made a singular contribution to the sanctification of art that occurred in the latter half of the nineteenth century The faith maintained that spiritual energies could reside in objects and thus works of art could be appreciated not only for what they illustrated but also as vessels of the psychic vibrations their creators impressed into them Such beliefs sanctified both the making and collecting of art in an era when Darwinism and Positivism were increasingly disenchanting the world and the efforts to represent it In this context Spiritualism endowed the artist s profession with the prestige of a religious calling in doing so it sought not to replace religion with art but to make art a site where religion happened

Post-Crisis European Cinema György Kalmár,2020-06-02 This book explores the cinematic representations of the pervasive socio cultural change that the 21st century brought to Europe and the world Discussing films such as I Daniel Blake Cold War and Jupiter s Moon it puts distinctively post crisis gendered representations in a complex theoretically informed and socially committed interdisciplinary perspective that maps the newly emerging formations of masculinity at a time of rapid socio economic transition Kalmár argues that the series of crises that started with the 9 11 terrorist attacks changed some of our fundamental expectations about history debunked many of our grand narratives and thus changed the cultural logic of our thoroughly globalized civilization The book focuses on the ways cinema reflects interprets and shapes a rapidly changing world the hot issues of the times the new formations of identity and the shifts in cinematic representation This is an interdisciplinary research that is equally interested in what new the 21st century brought about most specifically to Europe and to its white men as in film and its responses to these socio cultural changes

The Fatal Silence Pasquale De Marco, In the annals of maritime disasters the sinking of the RMS Titanic stands as a haunting reminder of human hubris and the unpredictable nature of fate While the world remembers the Titanic s tragic fate there exists another vessel the SS Californian whose role in the disaster remains shrouded in mystery and controversy This book delves into the untold story of the Californian the ship that stood silent and seemingly indifferent as the Titanic sank into the icy depths of the North Atlantic Through meticulous research and analysis we unravel the events of that fateful night examining the Californian s actions decisions and the circumstances that led to this maritime tragedy As we journey through the chapters of this book we uncover the fateful events that unfolded on April 14 1912 We explore the Californian s unique position its proximity to the Titanic and the eerie silence that enveloped the night We delve into the actions of Captain Stanley Lord his crew and the passengers aboard the Californian examining their choices and the reasons behind their decisions The Californian s haunting legacy has been the subject of intense scrutiny speculation and debate Allegations of negligence conspiracy theories and unanswered questions have swirled around this vessel for over a century This book aims to separate fact from fiction unraveling the truth behind the Californian s role in the Titanic disaster Through a comprehensive analysis of evidence and expert insights we explore the factors that contributed to this tragedy We examine the challenges of communication and cooperation the limitations of technology and the human factors that played a role in the events that transpired This book serves as a tribute to the victims of the Titanic disaster and a testament to the enduring fascination with this maritime tragedy It is a call to remember the lessons learned from this dark chapter in history and to honor the legacy of those who perished and survived As we delve into the Californian s story we gain a deeper understanding of the complexities of human nature the fragility of life and the enduring power of hope in the face of adversity If you like this book write a review

Reclaiming Time Tanya Ann Kennedy,2023-11-01 The post 2016 election era in the United States is commonly presumed to be an era of crisis Reclaiming Time argues that the narratives used to make this crisis a meaningful national story e g Hillbilly Elegy Strangers in Their Own Land are not only gendered and racialized but also give a thin account of time one so superficial as to make the future unimaginable Examining the work of feminist theorists performance artists writers and activists from Octavia Butler and Jesmyn Ward to the Combahee River Collective and Congresswoman Maxine Waters Tanya Ann Kennedy shows how their work disturbs dominant temporal frames rearticulates the relations between past present and future and offers models for doing the future as reparation Reclaiming Time thus builds on while also critiquing feminist literary critical practices of reparative reading Kennedy further aligns the method of reparative reading with the theories and aims of reparative justice making the case for more fully engaging with social movement activism

Black Women, Citizenship, and the Making of Modern Cuba Takkara K. Brunson,2023-03-07 In the first book to focus on the activism of Black women during Cuba's prerevolutionary period Takkara Brunson discusses how these women battled exclusion on multiple fronts but played an important role in forging a modern democracy Images in Mind Deborah Tarn Steiner, 2020-09-01 In archaic and classical Greece statues played a constant role in people's religious, political, economic, aesthetic, and mental lives Evidence of many kinds demonstrates that ancient Greeks thought about and interacted with statues in ways very different from our own This book recovers ancient thinking about statues by approaching them through contemporary literary sources It not only shows that ancient viewers conceived of images as more operative than aesthetic but additionally reveals how poets and philosophers found in sculpture a practice good to think with Deborah Tarn Steiner considers how Greek authors used images to ponder the relation of a copy to an original and of external appearance to inner reality For these writers a sculpture could straddle life and death encode desire or occasion reflection on their own act of producing a text Many of the same sources also reveal how thinking about statues was reflected in the objects' everyday treatment Viewing representations of gods and heroes as vessels hosting a living force worshippers ritually washed, clothed, and fed them in order to elicit the numinous presence within By reading the plastic and verbal sources together, this book offers new insights into classical texts while illuminating the practices surrounding the design, manufacture, and deployment of ancient images Its argument that images are properly objects of cultural and social rather than purely aesthetic study will attract art historians, cultural historians, and anthropologists as well as classicists The Sociological Review, 1929 Great Lakes and Midwest Catalog Partners Book Distributing, 1993 The Hunted and the Haunted Jose Luis Sandoval, 2019-03-05 These poems are for all lovers without exception whether or not they're members of this other exclusive club Blessed are they who aren't members just as surely as all true blue members in good standing wish they weren't There's only one way into this club and no way out If you lose a spouse to the Lord that you cannot live without but manage to live on by brute force, you're in the ranks of the bereaved torch carriers of this very painful club The poems of this book cannot heal you since someone else wrote them but they could conceivably soothe you a little by keeping you company and bring you face to face with what you treasure most about the one you love but lost Expect nothing but the haunting beauty of poems that cannot pretend to be reservoirs of strength and wisdom to help you bear your burden but you'll find in them a kindred spirit in the mirror of your soul Holocaust Intersections Axel Bangert, 2017-07-05 Recent representations of the Holocaust have increasingly required us to think beyond rigid demarcations of nation and history medium and genre Holocaust Intersections sets out to investigate the many points of conjunction between these categories in recent images of genocide The book examines transnational constellations in Holocaust cinema and television in Europe, disclosing instances of border crossing and boundary troubling at levels of production, distribution, and reception It highlights intersections between film genres through intertextuality and pastiche and the deployment of audiovisual Holocaust memory and testimony Finally, the volume addresses connections between the Holocaust and other histories of genocide in the visual culture of the new millennium engaging with the questions of transhistoricity and intercultural perspective Drawing on a wide variety of different media from cinema and television to installation art and the internet and on the most recent scholarship on responses to the Holocaust the volume aims to update our understanding of how visual culture looks at the Holocaust and genocide today With the contributions Robert S C Gordon Axel Bangert Libby Saxton Introduction Emiliano Perra Between National and Cosmopolitan 21st Century Holocaust Television in Britain France and Italy Judith Keilbach Title to be announced Laura Rascaroli Transits Thinking at the Junctures of Images in Harun Farocki s Respite and Arnaud des Pallieres s Drancy Avenir Maxim Silverman Haneke and the Camps Barry Langford Globalising the Holocaust Fantasies of Annihilation in Contemporary Media Culture Ferzina Banaji The Nazi Killin Business A Post Modern Pastiche of the Holocaust Matilda Mroz Neighbours Polish Jewish Relations in Contemporary Polish Visual Culture Berber Hagedoorn Holocaust Representation in the Multi Platform TV Documentaries De Oorlog The War and 13 in de Oorlog 13 in the War Annette Hamilton Cambodian Genocide Ethics and Aesthetics in the Cinema of Rithy Panh Piotr Cieplak Emma Wilson The Afterlife of Images Alina Szapocznikow Agata Jakubowska, 2011-12-15 Drawing on the work of prominent art historians curators critics and collectors this exhibition catalogue presents the most current research on the work of Alina Szapocznikow Born in Kalisz Poland in 1926 Szapocznikow studied in Prague and Paris spent the last decade of her life in France and created an impressive number of sculptures and drawings that are now defined as post surrealist and proto feminist Recent exhibitions of the artist s work in Germany and France along with acquisitions by prominent collections worldwide have bolstered Szapocznikow s international reputation and ignited discussion of her significance to twentieth century art
