The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood Evdokia Stefanopoulou, 2023-07-27 The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood focuses on the American science fiction SF film during the period 2001 2020 in order to provide a theoretical mapping of the genre in the context of Conglomerate Hollywood Using a social semiotics approach in a systematic corpus of films the book argues that the SF film can be delineated by two semiotic squares the first one centering on the genre s more than human ontologies SF bodies and the second one focusing on its imaginative worlds SF worlds Based on this theoretical framework the book examines the genre in six cycles which are placed in their historical context and are analyzed in relation to cultural discourses such as technological embodiment race animal human relations environmentalism global capitalism and the techno scientific Empire By considering these cycles which include superhero films creature films space operas among others as expressions of the genre s basic oppositions the book facilitates the comparison and juxtaposition of films that have rarely been discussed in tandem offering a new perspective on the multiple articulations of the SF film in the new millennium

The Post-Screen Through Virtual Reality, Holograms and Light Projections Jenna Ng, 2025-10-01 Screens are ubiquitous today Yet contemporary screen media eliminate the presence of the screen and diminish the visibility of its boundaries As the image becomes indistinguishable from the viewer s surroundings this unsettling prompts re examination of how screen boundaries demarcate Through readings of three media forms Virtual Reality holograms and light projections this book develops new theories of the surfaces on and spaces in which images are displayed Interrogating contemporary contestations of reality against illusion it argues that the disappearance of difference reflects shifted conditions of actuality and virtuality in understanding the human condition These shifts further connect to the current state of politics by way of their distorted truth values corrupted terms of information and internalizations of difference The Post Screen Through Virtual Reality Holograms and Light Projections thus thinks anew the image s borders and delineations evoking the screen boundary as an instrumentation of today s intense virtualizations which do not tell the truth In the process a new imagination for images emerges for a gluttony of the virtual for new conceptualizations of object and representation materiality and energies media and histories real and unreal for new understandings of appearances dis appearances replacement and replacement the post screen
