Jorgenson, 2007-12-18 A gripping account of ordinary men with extraordinary courage and heroism who had one last chance to make good and one helluva war zone to do it in The new commander of the Company E 52d Infantry LRRPs Capt George

Paccerelli was tough but the men's new AO was brutal. It was bad enough that the provinces of Binh Long, Phuoc Long and Tay Ninh bordered enemy friendly Cambodia but their vast stretches of double and triple canopy jungle were also home to four crack enemy divisions including the Viet Cong's notorious 95C Regiment. Only the long range patrols could deliver the critical strategic intelligence that the 1st Cav so desperately needed. Outmanned, outgunned, far from safety, these LRRPs stalked the enemy to his lair, staging bold prisoner snatches and tracking down hidden jungle bases. Hiding in ambush, surrounded by NVA, these teams either pulled off spectacular escape and evasion maneuvers in running firefights or died trying.

Fortitudine, 2009 Returning Fire Col. James W. Booth, 2011-09-28 This book is the factual story of the development of armed helicopters in the US Army and their first employment in combat. The story is dramatically told by the courageous men who lived it, flying daily into enemy infested areas, facing murderous fire from automatic and anti-aircraft weapons. In late 1961, the US Government deployed five Transportation Helicopter Companies. H-21 lift ships to South Vietnam to increase the mobility of South Vietnamese ground forces. The Viet Cong quickly recognized that the H-21s were unarmed and began shooting at them, endangering the lives of American crewmen. A helicopter company equipped with 25 UH-1 helicopters had been cobbled together on Okinawa by the Commander, US Army Pacific. Believing the company was soon to be deployed to Vietnam, the men assigned to the unit armed its helicopters by scrounging weapons systems left over from WW II and Korea stored in Army Air Force depots in Okinawa. Machine guns and 2.75 inch rockets were jury-rigged onto the UH-1s. Officially designated the Utility Tactical Helicopter Company but widely known as the UTT, the company deployed to Saigon in September 1962. After some jurisdictional squabbles with the Air Force over roles and missions, UTT began combat operations in October. It quickly became widely known for professionalism and the courage of its crew members. Such was its fame that for years South Vietnamese military personnel called all armed helicopters UTT. Unfortunately, over its years in RVN, the Company endured frequent designation changes: UTT, 68th, 197th, 334th Armed Helicopter Company. Why remains a mystery even today. The Company's legacy is strong and endures today. Armed helicopters are a major component of US Army combat forces. The current Army Apache program, over 600, is a direct descendent. Additionally, the Marines and Navy have strong armed helicopter programs as does every major military power in the world. Ironically, it all began with a small group of courageous men mounting scavenged weapons, mostly outmoded, on helicopters originally designed for medical evacuation. This is their story.

Airman, 1969 Congressional Record United States, Congress, 1996 Like Killing Rats Cpl. Osborn R. E., 2016-02-02 I Corps Republic of South Vietnam, bloody 1968. Live the harrowing highs and traumatic lows of one Marine youth who finds his seven months in country war weary self carrying a field radio burden for a suspect glory minded forward observer artillery officer who'd yet to learn the undeclared war was a government sham, a political ruse that would one tragic day force the FO team's command structured relationship to a who's responsible head over a short round of friendly artillery which put their field commander permanently out of action. The resolve testing war with the North Vietnamese Army the near immobilizing ever sweltering jungle mountains and sandy flatlands the thought friendly villages the two of our people executed the four enemy prisoners executed in turn as well as President Johnson's bombing halts and retaking enemy positions are the nerve pickling building blocks shackled themselves together like a confrontation packed novel about combat weary vets not taught to run from a political fight either Experience the combative days literally sweat the chancy nights devour the popular songs when lucky enough to hear such haunting sounds as Get Off My Cloud by the Rolling Stones For one can't simply throw their rifle down and quit The corps will toss said shameless in the brig for untold years though a panicked one can steal away into the masking jungle and surrender yet hard core enemy will put a bullet through a deserter's enlisted head like a pesky bunker rat unless one's a commissioned officer then the VC might keep said alive as a peace bargaining chip One may understand the historic reason why many the combat marine during such oh so questioning times likened themselves to the politically used if not correct title of Uncle Sam's misguided children know what it's truly like to stalk and be stalked kill or be killed fear and be feared
