Some of My Best Friends Are Human Liz J. Andersen, 2019-02-25 In an underground orphan center on an overpopulated planet Tajen Jesmuhr dreams of freedom in a distant wilderness under an open sky So when offered an interplanetary ecology class with offworld field trips Taje leaps at the chance But Taje isn't the only misfit here where everyone has a tragic past and hidden wounds and she soon clashes with her teacher and her classmates including A boy with a frightening secret who lost his family to a terrorist plague A crafty female human alien chimera whose parents disappeared in a paraspace accident And a boy with a hidden past and a dead father he still hates All may have promising careers ahead of them but only if they can learn to trust themselves and one another enough to survive an uncaring system and a deadly final exam Andre Norton believed in this story and anyone young and old who loves science fiction with interesting characters alien animals and interplanetary adventures without war will enjoy it too

Hollis Griffin,2017-01-09 An analysis of emerging LGBTQ media queer spaces in urban areas and sexual identity The explosion of cable networks cinema distributors and mobile media companies explicitly designed for sexual minorities in the contemporary moment has made media culture a major factor in what it feels like to be a queer person F Hollis Griffin demonstrates how cities offer a way of thinking about that phenomenon By examining urban centers in tandem with advertiser supported newspapers New Queer Cinema and B movies queer targeted television and mobile apps Griffin illustrates how new forms of LGBTQ media are less new than we often believe He connects cities and LGBTQ media through the experiences they can make available to people which Griffin articulates as feelings emotions and affects He illuminates how the limitations of these experiences while not universally accessible nor necessarily empowering are often the very reasons why people find them compelling and desirable As a guide to emerging queer media of our new century Hollis Griffin is funny generous passionate and lucid Whether he s explaining Grindr s memes or the gayborhoods of Chicago cable travel programs or online networks Griffin discovers how it feels to be queer in the digital age Amy Villarejo author of Ethereal Queer Television Historicity Desire Offers a piercing examination of modern identity politics focused on relationships among new forms of media consumption and marketplaces urban centers and the experiences of sexual minorities Feeling Normal is a must read for scholars and students in queer studies and communication media studies film studies and sociology Choice Racism Without Racists Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2010 This edition includes a chapter examining the Obama mystery the election of a black President even though racial progress has stagnated in the country since the 1980s Bonilla Silva argues that this development is not a breakthrough in race relations but a continuation of racial trends in the last 40 years including the sedimentation of color blind racism as the dominant ideology in the nation

Lyrical Iowa ,1966 Experiencing 'Flow' in Jazz Performance Dr Elina Hytönen-Ng, 2013-08-28 The term flow refers to experiences where the musician moves into a consciousness in which time seems to be suspended and perception of reality is blurred by unconscious forces An essential part of the jazz tradition which often serves as the foundation of the musician s identity flow is recognised within the greater jazz community as a critical factor in accomplished musicianship Flow as a concept is so deeply embedded in the scene that these experiences are not generally discussed It contributes to the musicians work motivation providing a vital level of satisfaction and accomplishment The power of the experience consciously or unconsciously has given rise to the creation of heroic images in which jazz musicians are seen as being bold yet vulnerable strong and masculine but still capable of expressing emotions In this discourse musicians are pictured as people constantly putting themselves on the line exposing themselves and their hearts to one another as well as to the audience Heroic profiles are richly constructed within the jazz scene and their incorporation into narratives of flow suggests that such images are inseparable from jazz It is thus unclear how far the musicians are simply reporting personal experience as opposed to unconsciously perpetuating a profoundly internalised mythology Drawing on eighteen interviews conducted with professional jazz musicians from around the world Elina Hytönen-Ng examines the fundamentals of the phenomenon of flow in jazz that has led to this genre's popularity. Furthermore, she draws on how flow experiences are viewed and constructed by jazz musicians, the meanings they attach to it, and the quality of music that it inspires. Third Culture Kids Ettie Zilber, 2009. The concept of Third Culture Kids (TCKs), children who follow their globetrotting parents around the world, is not a new one and has been widely studied. However, there is one specific group of TCKs who have until now been largely ignored: EdKids, the children of international school educators. In this new work, Dr. Ettie Zilber brings together all the material she has collected over many years of research on this unique group and allows them to voice their own opinions, feelings, and stories for the first time. Spanning a long career in education, Dr. Ettie Zilber has served at international schools and other educational centers in the US, Israel, Singapore, Spain, Guatemala, and China; served on the boards of ECIS and AISHE; presented and published on cross-cultural themes; and served as an Adjunct Professor for Lehigh University and Endicott College, teaching courses in Comparative Education and Intercultural Communication. I Feel Precious to God Beverly Hyles, 1988-02. A Dictionary of Catch Phrases Eric Partridge, 2003-09-02. An abridged version of Eric Partridge's Dictionary of Catch Phrases, concentrating on those phrases in current use in the English-speaking world.
