Award Honorable Mention Theological Studies New Testament Theology is a major new contribution to New Testament scholarship by renowned scholar Eckhard Schnabel While many New Testament theologies approach the material through a particular thematic construct e g covenant Schnabel takes a different approach First he focuses on Jesus Messiah and his significance for the early church Second he seeks to describe the theology of the New Testament as it was written and read in its historical context This approach honors the fact that the authors and original readers of the New Testament were real people dealing with real issues in their specific ecclesiological cultural and missiological settings Schnabel comprehensively combines a historical description of the New Testament s theology with a systematic reflection on the New Testament s message and the convictions of Jesus and his early followers This valuable contribution to the field will be insightful reading for students scholars and pastors Documentary Arabic Private and Business Letters on Papyrus Eva Mira

Grob,2010-10-28 Arabic letters on papyrus challenge the modern reader There are few to no diacritical dots to distinguish homographs no systematic spacing between single words and in the majority of cases a low degree of graphical structuring However contemporary readers usually read and understood these documents easily probably because the recipient of a letter knew what to expect The letters are formulaic and their information packaging follows an algorithm typical for their time and content Here formulaic letter writing means not only the reuse of the same formulae or topoi but expressing thoughts in a predictable linguistic way and order both as a matter of readability and as one of adequacy and politeness The main concern of this work is to discover these unwritten rules and norms behind Arabic letter writing on papyrus The

New Testament and Criticism George Eldon Ladd,1967 One unfortunate consequence of the bitter fundamentalist modernist controversy which raged in the early twenties has been the strongly negative attitude toward Biblical criticism assumed by some of the successors to the fundamentalists of the 1920s Such people according to the author insist that the critical method is basically hostile to the evangelical faith and they have continued to oppose any use of it Others however claiming the same heritage believe that the orthodox interpretation of the Gospel can be defended positively and constructively only with the aid of a sound critical method and the results of critical scholarship The author believes that an evangelical Biblical criticism is not only possible but necessary The central thesis of his book is that the Bible is the Word of God given in the words of men in history and as such its historical origins must be reconstructed as far as possible In this way a richer understanding of the Scriptures can be achieved The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology ,1916 Fayûm
