

The George Frew story ...

This is the controversial and riveting story of George Frew's rise from obscurity in the Australian bush to creating the highly acclaimed 'Commodore' chain of Australian-owned international hotels and motels.

George's fast-moving account of his marriage to Pixie Skase, the exhilaration of winning the Melbourne and Caulfield Cups, his candid insights into the elite circles of power, and his hair-raising experiences building hotels in other countries, make this book one of the most inspirational Australian autobiographies of our time.

"George and I have been mates for more than 30 years, when the Joy Boys played his George Hotel in St. Kilda. I know a few blokes who have had a roller-coaster ride, but not like this bloke. He started out with a hundred quid and went on to build a chain of hotels around the world that are now worth hundreds of millions of dollars.

In some circles my 'brother' is probably better remembered for winning the Melbourne and Caulfield Cups, and of course as my friend Pixie Skase's one-time husband.

I'm sure each reader will find something funny, daring, naughty or shocking in this extremely frank autobiography – seduction, rape, murder, poisoning, fast horses and faster women. George leaves nothing out in this one."
