Earl, 2019-11-22 Crocodile Fever first published in 1954 is a fascinating look at the life and adventures of Bryan Herbert Dempster. Dempster, born in South Africa, was perhaps the first white man to successfully hunt crocodiles not for sport but to obtain their skins for his livelihood. The book details the risks and special techniques he developed by long trial and error to hunt these river creatures as well as his personal struggles with his failing health, his estranged family, and impassive government officials. Much of the hunting took place in the Kariba Gorge of the Zambezi River, now completely inundated by the Kariba Dam and part of the world's largest man-made lake. Included are 16 pages of photographs. Author Lawrence Earl was an internationally known journalist, novelist, and photographer. Asia, 1927 BWANA MKUBWA - BIG GAME HUNTING AND TRADING IN CENTRAL AFRICA 1894 TO 1904. Robert Wright, 2012-11-01 Big game hunting and trading in Central Africa from 1894 to 1904. The Robert Wright memoirs are an interesting and sometimes humorous window into the life of the European pioneers of Northern Rhodesia and the British East African Protectorate from 1894 to 1904. Robert and his brother David were initially employed as coffee farmers in the Blantyre district. Their sense of adventure soon led them to start a business hunting trophy animals and trading for ivory and rubber from Lake Tanganyika to the Katanga province of the Congo. Robert was a keen photographer, and fortunately many of his photographs have survived and are included in this book. My Name is not Mzungu Lars Peter Jensen, 2023-06-22 A hopefully reasonably coherent string of tales about the odd, funny, exhilarating, and at times sad experiences I have survived through many years in Africa. From a childhood and teenage years in Tanzania and then around many countries in Africa until today, where I am still fortunate to live, work, and travel around this incredible continent, I have endeavoured to let the characters I have met along the way be the thread that carries the reader through the abundance of colour, music, pure human energy, and determination to succeed, which constantly confronts the observer in Africa. Restless and aimless but with highs of love and lows of broken promises, some dreams came true, others not. My relationship with Africa is complicated. The Africa that will never let go of me.
