Raymond,2017-04-30 We all have Nonconformist ancestors In the mid nineteenth century almost half of the English population were Nonconformists And there were very few villages where there was not at least one Nonconformist chapel Local and family historians need to be aware of the diversity of

Nonconformity and of the many sources which will enable them to trace the activities of Nonconformist forebears Stuart Raymond's handbook provides an overview of those sources He identifies the numerous websites libraries and archives that local and family historians need to consult These are described in detail their strengths and weaknesses are pointed out and the contribution currently made by the internet is highlighted Most Nonconformist denominations are discussed not just the mainstream Presbyterians Congregationalists Quakers and Methodists but also obscure sects such as the Muggletonians and Glasites and even the two groups who regularly appear on our doorsteps today Jehovah's Witnesses and the Mormons The religious activities of our Nonconformist ancestors tell us a great deal about them and provide fascinating insights into their lives The New England Magazine ,1904
