Something For Everyone Something For You:

Something for Everyone? Simone Boogaarts-de Bruin, 2011 The urban population is becoming increasingly diverse and growing ethnic diversity is having a singular effect on nightlife in Dutch cities By studying the motivation behind and nightlife choices of the young people who participate in ethno party scenes Boogaarts de Bruin investigates how the changing urban population affects the supply side of the nightlife market using an analytical model she has developed and which she calls the model of structured choice This approach is sensitive to the flexible use of the processes of agency and structure due to the systematic distinction that it makes between societal and personal factors Accordingly it is revealed that in order to analyze and adequately explain the nightlife experiences of and choices made by ethnic youngsters an integrated model is required which centralizes the interaction between the structural strategies of the producers on the one hand and the personal preferences and agency of the consumers on the other What is more this book demonstrates that nightlife has changed because of the increasing ethnic diversity of the Dutch population Finally in the epilogue the fieldwork results are discussed in light of the currently heated debate regarding the integration processes of ethnic minority young people in nightlife

As I See It Cody Coffey,2010-03 People will be interested in this book because it offers insight and a different look at the cycle of life and death and why they are never ending The who what where and why are just fill ins for the curious but logical questions and answers that we ponder as humans I hope to take it further by examining the meaning behind the meaning The possibilities and the consequences of ignoring the very basis of not just life but the survival of humanity that we are not here by some kind of accident in the cosmos What happens and transpires when people no longer feel a purpose to life and this feeling causes an insurrection and destruction of one s soul where not only do they lash out at each other they eventually despise themselves This issue is what happens in the absence of God in one s life and how the soul starves while the flesh feasts in misery and selfishness The absence of purpose which is a greater good God causes a systematic breakdown where the tentacles of misery and chaos run wild as one adopts the mentality of every man women and child The more selfish people become the less they care about those further and further away from their personal space to the point where they do not care about their own country their own state community right up to their own backyard As evil advances the faithless retreat one grows more and more selfish in the absence of God Good and evil right and wrong become meshed together and a veil of gray causes one unable to discern between the two
