Something About The Author Vol 163:

Something about the Author Maikue Vang, 2006 Covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs Mothers in Children's and Young Adult Literature Lisa Rowe Fraustino, Karen Coats, 2016-05-05 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2018 Edited Book Award Contributions by Robin Calland Lauren Causey Karen Coats Sara K Day Lisa Rowe Fraustino Dorina K Lazo Gilmore Anna Katrina Gutierrez Adrienne Kertzer Kouen Kim Alexandra Kotanko Jennifer Mitchell Mary Jeanette Moran Julie Pfeiffer and Donelle Ruwe Living or dead present or absent sadly dysfunctional or merrily adequate the figure of the mother bears enormous freight across a child's emotional and intellectual life Given the vital role literary mothers play in books for young readers it is remarkable how little scholarly attention has been paid to the representation of mothers outside of fairy tales and beyond studies of gender stereotypes This collection of thirteen essays begins to fill a critical gap by bringing together a range of theoretical perspectives by a rich mix of senior scholars and new voices Following an introduction in which the coeditors describe key trends in interdisciplinary scholarship the book's first section focuses on the pedagogical roots of maternal influence in early children's literature The next section explores the shifting cultural perspectives and subjectivities of the twentieth century The third section examines the interplay of fantasy reality and the ethical dimensions of literary mothers The collection ends with readings of postfeminist motherhood from contemporary realism to dystopian fantasy The range of critical approaches in this volume will provide multiple inroads for scholars to investigate richer readings of mothers in children's and young adult literature
