Something in Common and Other Stories Langston Hughes, 1973 The Turn of the Screw and Other Stories Henry James, 2008-04-17 A young inexperienced governess is charged with the care of Miles and Flora two small children abandoned by their uncle at his grand country house She sees the figure of an unknown man on the tower and his face at the window It is Peter Quint the master's dissolute valet and he has come for little Miles But Peter Quint is dead Like the other tales collected here Sir Edmund Orme Owen Wingrave and The Friends of the Friends The Turn of the Screw is to all immediate appearances a ghost story But are the appearances what they seem Is what appears to the governess a ghost or a hallucination Who else sees what she sees The reader may wonder whether the children are victims of corruption from beyond the grave or victims of the governess's infernal imagination which torments but also entrals her The Turn of the Screw is probably the most famous certainly the most eerily equivocal of all ghostly tales Is it a subtle self-conscious exploration of the haunted house of Victorian culture filled with echoes of sexual and social unease Or is it simply the most hopelessly evil story that we have ever read The texts are those of the New York Edition with a new Introduction and Notes ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Within the Tides & Typhoon and Other Stories Conrad J., Joseph Conrad was a Polish British writer regarded as one of the greatest novelists to write in the English language Written at various times under various influences these short stories are linked by Conrad's treatment of loyalty and betrayal Typhoon is the story of one unremarkable steamship captain pitted against a storm of incredible fury Captain MacWhirr has a reputation as a solid steadfast man who having just enough imagination to carry him through each successive day and no more cannot fully believe any storm would be a match for his powerful ship When the barometer and other clues begin to hint at trouble ahead he is only moderately concerned and unwilling to change course and lose precious time a decision that may prove more costly than he could ever have imagined The tone of other stories in the volume shifts from the pathos of Because of the Dollars to the gothic The Inn of the Two Witches and the grim humour of The Partner Jump and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 In this collection of sixteen stories Gordimer brings unforgettable characters from every corner of society to life a child refugee fleeing civil war in Mozambique a black activist's deserted wife longing for better times a rich safari party indulging themselves while lionesses circle their lodge Jump is a vivid disturbing and rewarding portrait of life in South Africa under apartheid The Exiles and Other Stories Richard Harding Davis, 1916 The Door in the Wall, and Other Stories H.
