Something To Hide A Novel:

Bearing Witness Wendy Griswold, 2018-06-05 Greed frustrated love traffic jams infertility politics polygamy These together with depictions of traditional village life and the impact of colonialism made familiar to Western readers through Chinua Achebe's writing are the stuff of Nigerian fiction Bearing Witness examines this varied content and the determined people who against all odds write publish sell and read novels in Africa's most populous nation Drawing on interviews with Nigeria's writers publishers booksellers and readers surveys and a careful reading of close to 500 Nigerian novels from lightweight romances to literary masterpieces Wendy Griswold explores how global cultural flows and local conflicts meet in the production and reception of fiction She argues that Nigerian readers and writers form a reading class that unabashedly believes in progress rationality and the slow but inevitable rise of a reading culture But they do so within a society that does not support their assumptions and does not trust literature making them modernists in a country that is simultaneously premodern and postmodern Without privacy reliable electricity political freedom or even social toleration of bookworms these Nigerians write and read political satires formula romances war stories complex gender fiction blood and sex crime capers nostalgic portraits of village life and profound explorations of how decent people get by amid urban chaos Bearing Witness is an inventive and moving work of cultural sociology that may be the most comprehensive sociological analysis of a literary system ever written tales began flowing after Peter's powerful spiritual awakening in Newburyport Massachusetts Newburyport is a quaint little historic seaport on the coast heading towards New Hampshire Peter had been sober in the 12 step recovery program for many years and had recovered from his alcoholism Peter's love of Nature had brought him to the Newburyport area This area is rich with Nature's treasures Native American Heritage and many tales from the tall cargo ships of olden days High street was lined with homes of these Sea Captains Peter's awakening had given him new eyes and new highly evolved senses Peter was to have powerful past lives experience with his Mystery Woman guide named Layne Layne was a mystic that would tell people things about themselves that there was no way she could know She would look you in the eyes and tell you your deepest secrets She also knew about the Earth's electromagnetic grids and helped Peter understand what he was experiencing in Newburyport Peter's new heightened senses could feel the electromagnet flow of energy and the convergence right below Market Square in Newburyport Market Square was one of the crossroads for these powerful electromagnet energies that gives life to our planet Peter was to share the secrets that were revealed to him in his writings
