illuminate the profound heartbreak of watching a loved one fade and the impossibility of preparing for that final goodbye Yet amid the sorrow Breathing Sorrow is also a healing after loss narrative It is a tender testament to the resilience of love the strength of family and the presence of light even in the darkest days With each chapter Baer weaves heartfelt insights and poetic moments of clarity offering solace to readers grappling with their own loss of a spouse or navigating the shadows of grief For anyone seeking a spiritual grief journey that acknowledges pain while gently pointing toward peace this book holds space for tears healing and the fragile beauty of carrying on If you've lost someone and are wondering how to keep breathing let this story walk beside you

Shadows of Footsteps William Kofoed, 2016-06-12 I do not know why most poets write poetry but I know why I do so I write because a thought gets in my head and bounces around till I write it down You could say that I don't try to write but that I am forced to write Now I do try to write good poetry that people will enjoy reading but I don't try to write poems for people to read Most people find that they like some of my poems and hate others of them The Purple and Blue Collection of Poems Michael Thomas, 2001-01-09 From the first inept but energetic poetic attempts of a 14 year old boy to the controlled but somewhat confused verses of a 32 year old college student this book is an emotional thrill ride that takes one from teenage lust to early middle age romanticism from a near denial of the Christian religion to the ponderance of all life as religion and from a seriousness in all human thought to a silliness that is the result of all this human thought This is a simple book of poetry that anyone can read without feeling his/her sensibilities are being offended yet in the juxtaposing of early poems to the late poems one can realize that the poetry is not a simple process Poetry as it should grow with us as we grow and this book poignantly and energetically shows the maturation of a man a mind and a poet
